Highway Work Halt Threatens Five Marin Projects

Marin County stands to lose $2,850,000 in highway work already budgeted under an order issued yesterday by the state Department of Public Works halting all new highway construction unless Congress acts to provide federal-aid highway funds.

Marin projects affected by the order include:

1. Completion of the Greenbrae interchange on Highway 101, $1,240,000.

2. Improvement of 2.4 miles of 101 from the north city limits of San Rafael to Lucas Valley road including a full interchange at Terra Linda.

3. Partial interchange at San Pedro road and east-side frontage road from Terra Linda to Lucas Valley road, $1,250,000.

4. Plantings along Highway 101 from the Richardson Bay Bridge to Corte Madera, $50,000.

5. Improvement of the Vista Point parking area at the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge, $40,000.

The Vista Point project, although included in the state budget, has been held up anyway pending approval by directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Yesterday's order stopped all new state highway construction — some 200 million dollars worth — to await the outcome of the federal highway debate.

Robert B. Bradford, state public works director, said that if federal aid legislation isn't approved "the repercussions will be drastic to the traveling public," the Associated Press reported.

He said no new contracts will be awarded for emergency work until the federal wrangle is settled.

"I don't want to be pessimistic," Bradford said, "but we've got to keep the cash on hand to meet current obligations."

Affected are about 200 million dollars in major highway projects — more than 90 million dollars in Los Angeles County alone.

Among the projects which would lose out is a new four-lane highway over Donner Summit on Highway 40, planned to carry traffic to the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley.

President Eisenhower wants to boost the three-cent per gallon federal gasoline tax to four and one-half cents to pay for a 250 billion dollar federal highway aid program.

Congress is holding out for a bond issue or loans from the general fund. The result is a stalemate with indications Congress may adjourn this month.

Included in the big highway bill is some 250 million dollars for California. It's death would mean loss of another 25 million because of fund level requirements.

This year's state highway budget is 610 million dollars.

Hunt For Officer's Slayer Pressed; 5 Boys Quizzed Here

Search Shifts To East Bay As Suspect License Sighted

Five Napa teen-agers, described by Marin County sheriff's deputies as "wise guys," may be questioned in the slaying of Hillsborough Policeman Gene A. Doran.

The five were booked at the county jail today on charges of violating curfew or contributing to the violation.

One of the youths is 16, and two are 17. Also booked were Donald Ray Hood, 18, and William Etheredge, 19.

They were taken to the sheriff's office at 5:20 a.m. after an all-points bulletin was issued by the California Highway Patrol.

The sheriff's office said a car answering the description of one driven by one of the youths had been observed speeding and without a license plate.

Officials did not know the driver of the car, and did not know if further charges would be pressed. But a deputy said the car, stopped in the northbound lane on Highway 101 near the Golden Gate Bridge, brought about several "wise answers."

When stopped, one of the youths said, "Yeah, I know who did it," and made a reference to the Hillsborough slaying. Deputies said the youths also said they were on probation from a variety of charges including car theft.

The sheriff's office did not have a complete report on the incident, but said that the youths might be questioned in the policeman slaying because of the remarks.

The sheriff's office said the Hillsborough Police Department is preparing today to give lie-detector tests to more than 100 suspects.

Doran was shot to death early yesterday on a lonely road. He was shot six times.

United Press International reported today that the search for Doran's slayer shifted to the East Bay after a car was seen in downtown Oakland carrying the license plates Doran was checking moments before he was shot.

At 4:07 a.m. yesterday, Doran had radioed headquarters asking for a check on license number SCP-424. This is customary procedure

LOOKS LIKE MARIN, BUT IT ISN'T

With the sun peaking wanly through the fog down on small boats in the water, this picture looks very much like the scene which can be seen frequently along Marin's own waterfront. This particular photo, however, was taken at Belmont Harbor, Chicago's haven for private craft on the shores of Lake Michigan. The picture was taken by Ed De Luga, Chicago Daily News photographer, who specializes in fog scenes. (AP Wirephoto)

Highway 101 Mishap Injures Three, Ties Up Heavy Traffic

Three persons were painfully injured in a three-vehicle crash yesterday afternoon that tied up heavy commuter traffic on Highway 101 in San Rafael for half an hour.

S/Sgt. Charles H. Windhorst, 34, of the 78th Communications Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, suffered cuts about the face and right leg. He received emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital and was transferred to Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco, where his condition was described as "good" today.

SUFFERS CUTS

Frank D. Baldauf, 55-year-old San Francisco landscape contractor, suffered numerous cuts about the face, chest and knees and was admitted to San Rafael General. His condition was "fair" today.

Baldauf's wife, Margaret, 49, lost several teeth and suffered cuts on the chin and knees. She also was reported in "fair" condition at San Rafael General Hospital.

The California Highway Patrol reported a car driven by Windhorst, northbound on 101, near the Lincoln avenue undercrossing, sideswiped a northbound pick-up truck driven by Dean B. McNealy, 53, of St. Helena.

HEAD-ON CRASH

Windhorst's convertible careened across the highway divider strip and smashed head-on into the Baldauf's southbound car, which overturned, landing on its top.

Highway traffic was clogged for about half an hour and several minor accidents occurred as other vehicles were forced to make sudden stops.

A/2c Charles Edward Russell of the 43rd Communications Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base was seriously injured early today when his car ran into the side of a moving freight train at a railroad crossing on the Black Point cutoff.

Russell was treated at Hamilton hospital and transferred to Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco. Officials at Letterman said X-rays were taken to determine whether Russell's skull is fractured, and he is under observation for a concussion. He also suffered

Gunman Holds Up Service Station

Flees With $121 After Slugging Attendant

"Don't try anything! Don't try to be funny! I've killed two men already."

With that threat, an unshaven and dirty man last night pulled out a black revolver and pointed it at A/1c Quintin Leonard Scott, an attendant at the Associated Service Station on Highway 101 at Ignacio.

Scott, a member of the 4th Air Force Headquarters Squadron, told sheriff's deputies that at 11:10 last night, the station was robbed of $121, and that the robber left in a white Thunderbird car.

Scott told the sheriff's office this story:

He was polishing a car in the grease room when a man in his 20s approached and pointed the gun at him. He complied with a request that the station lights be turned off, then took $121 from a cash box in the pump islands.

Then he folded the money neatly as instructed, handed it to the robber and turned his back to the man, also as instructed.

"This hurts me more than it does you, but I need a fix," the robber said.

Then Scott, still with his back turned, was struck on the head. He fell to the floor moaning. He raised his head and was struck again. When he thought it was safe he looked up again and saw the man drive away in a white car, which he believed to be a 1959 Ford Thunderbird.

The sheriff's office said an unidentified witness also saw the car drive away.

The same service station has

IT'S DEFINITE: NIKITA WILL ARRIVE SEPT. 15

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials today definitely named Sept. 15 as the date for Soviet Prime Minister Nikita S. Khrushchev's arrival in the United States.

They were still unable, however, to spell out details of his itinerary during his two-week visit. They said negotiations on where Khrushchev will go and when are still proceeding through the Soviet Embassy here.

Job Picture Bright, Labor Council Hears

The Marin County Labor Council last night heard reports that the county's employment situation is excellent, with several unions reporting shortages of available workers to meet demands.

The council also voted to inform California's senators and congressmen of the council's position on three federal legislative issues.

Spotty shortages of workers were reported by the retail clerks, machinists and carpenters.

MANY WORKING

Other unions reported all members working except for the Laborers Union, which reported a few men out of work.

On the legislative front, the council adopted a resolution asking Congress for a "fair" labor bill including proposed amendments "which would prevent serious injury to the legitimate trade union movement."

The council voted to write to Sens. Thomas H. Kuchel and Clair Engle and Rep. Clement W. Miller noting that veto of the federal housing bill may have serious effects in Marin, where construction is a major industry.

HIGHWAY BILL

The council also voted to ask California's representatives in both houses of Congress to take all possible steps to secure approval of a federal aid highway fund bill.

The Plastic and Novelty Workers Union reported a new contract with H. H. Koch and Sons at Corte Madera calling for a 30-cent hourly pay raise.

Also reported was a new contract between the Retail Clerks Union and the Royce Department Store in San Rafael providing a $2 weekly raise, with another dollar to be added Jan. 1.

Nixon Briefs Security Unit On Russ Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon reported to the National Security Council today on his Russian tour and the importance of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's U.S. Visit next month.

Nixon, who returned late yesterday from a two-week trip through Russia and Poland, brought back some up-to-the-minute tips on dealing with the impetuous and hard-hitting Soviet leader.

He thus is expected to take a leading role in devising strategy for dealing with Khrushchev when he arrives next month for a visit with President Eisenhower and his first look at the United States.

Nixon gave the President a first-hand report yesterday immediately on his return from abroad. (See story on page 14.)

Ball Club Fund Drive Half-Way To Quota

North Marin Pony Baseball League All-Stars are assured of transportation to tournament play in Provo, Utah, next week, but now the problem is getting them home afterward.

That was the report today from the North Marin League in its frantic fund-raising campaign to send the championship team to the Far West Regional Playoffs in Utah beginning next Monday.

Round trip transportation and meals would cost an estimated $1,200. The campaign had reached approximately the half-way mark this morning, according to Maj. Gordon R. Sorensen of Hamilton Air Force Base, league president.

Maj. Sorensen said the quota must be reached by tomorrow night so the 15-player team, a manager and coach can make travel arrangements over the weekend.

The team has won seven straight games in recent eliminations to qualify as Northern California representative in the regional tournament. Winner of the Provo tournament earns an all-expenses paid trip to the PONY (Protect Our Nation's Youth) World Series in Washington, Pa.

Major Sorensen said contributions will be accepted all day tomorrow by the following chairmen: Novato — Maj. Sorensen, 1380 Joyce street; Don Swan, Beehive Realty and Insurance; Bob Robertson, Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, 1125 Mirabella street; Santa Venetia—Mrs. Esther Muelrath, 21 Linda avenue; San Rafael—Paul Leahy, California Pacific Title Co., 1200 Lincoln avenue; Mill Valley—Fred Mack, 51 Lomita drive.

When the fund campaign was announced yesterday several contributions began pouring into those headquarters. Among early larger contribu-

ANGRY YELLOW JACKETS STAGE NEAR-FATAL ATTACK ON MAN

A Tiburon surveyor was released from the hospital yesterday afternoon after suffering what his doctor described as a "near fatal attack" from a swarm of yellow jackets Tuesday.

Charles L. Smith, 44, of 2550 Lyford cove, Tiburon, who is employed by Arthur H. Dakin at the Comstock Engineering Co., in Mill Valley, was sharpening some stakes on Upper Lovell avenue in Mill Valley in company with Dakin preparatory to making a survey.

Apparently the pounding disturbed a nearby nest of the insects. They descended in a swarm on Smith and Dakin. Smith was stung seven times on the head and once on the back.

Minutes later, Smith cried out that he was going blind. Dakin rushed him to a doctor, who treated the stings and gave him an injection of adrenalin when his blood pressure dropped to nearly zero. He was then taken by ambulance to Marin General Hospital.

His doctor reported that if treatment had been delayed another 10 minutes, the attack might have been fatal.

Firemen Halt Grass Blaze Inches From Novato House

A wind-swept grass fire spread to within a few inches of a wood frame residence in Novato before it was extinguished by 14 firefighters yesterday.

The crackling flames spread over two-thirds of an acre of weeds in an adjoining vacant lot and several square yards of short-cropped grass in the back yard of the Joseph Laufer residence, 1464 Pastel lane, and blackened a hedge and picket fence.

Mrs. Laufer, at home with her five children, 3 to 19 years old, heard the noise of the fire while watching television at 2:56 p.m.

"I've never been so frightened," she said. "I looked out and saw the flames coming very rapidly toward the house. I'm just grateful it didn't happen at night while we were sleeping."

Cause of the fire was not determined.

Waiter Says He Was Knifed By Hitchhiker

A San Francisco waiter told peace officers he was knifed early today by a hitchhiker who attempted to rob him on Highway 101 near Marin City.

Fred Omer Dugas told sheriff's deputies he picked up two hitchhikers about 1:30 a.m. between Corte Madera and Alto. He said he was driving south, and when he reached the northern edge of Marin City the two men demanded money.

He said a struggle ensued and one of the men knifed him. Then both fled. Dugas said he had $10 but neither his assailant nor the other man got any money.

Dugas drove onto the Golden Gate Bridge, bleeding from a knife wound over his right kidney, and reported the robbery to a toll collector, who called highway patrolmen. They in turn notified the sheriff.

Dugas, who also complained of bruises on his head and right leg, was taken to Park Emergency Hospital in San Francisco. Later he was transferred to Children's Hospital where his condition was listed today as satisfactory.

He told a highway patrolman at the bridge that he fainted once during the drive from Marin City to the bridge.

He told the highway patrolman one of the hitchhikers sat in the back of the car, the other in front. He described one of them as stocky, about 25 years old and wearing dungarees, a leather jacket and a felt hat. Dugas said the other was slender, and wore dungarees and a two-toned jacket.

HIGHWAY ACROBATS — Two persons in this car and one in the car that struck it were injured in an accident that tied up commuter traffic at 5 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101 in San Rafael. Frank D. been the subject of several stickups, but one reported last January turned out to be a hoax. In that case, another airman, Jesse William Winters, 20, was arrested for the "fake robbery" of $117.

Winters, subsequently charged with writing a $26 bad check at the MAC Service Station in San Rafael, is due to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow to enter a plea to both charges.

In the robbery last night, Scott described his assailant as blond, slender and wearing a armed forces type of fatigue cap and an armed forces jacket with a Marine Corps emblem.

WITNESS'S STORY

The unidentified witness told sheriff's deputies the person he saw drive away in a white car was not wearing a coat or cap. The witness said the driver blinked his lights before turning onto the southbound lane of the highway from behind a bus stop shelter.

Scott said the robber took the money in bills of $1, $5 and $10, but overlooked several larger amounts.

Scott was given emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital.

cuts about the forehead and both legs.

Letterman officials said Russell's condition is considered "better than good" despite his extensive injuries, and that he is "conscious and oriented."

The CHP reported Russell was westbound on the Black Point cutoff and slammed into the train, which was southbound. All warning signals at the railroad crossing were operating, the CHP said.

Phillip Cox, 13, of 16 Myrtle lane, San Anselmo, was treated for cuts of the knee last night at Marin General Hospital after he was struck by a car in a pedestrian walkway on Greenfield avenue, reported San Anselmo police.

Driver of the car, Richard Bradley Luce Jr., of 132 Ross Valley drive, San Rafael, was cited for violation of a pedestrian right of way.

He turned from Sir Francis Drake boulevard onto Greenfield avenue and his car hit the boy, San Anselmo police reported. The 13-year-old lad had just emerged from the Tamalpais Theater when the accident happened at 9:15 p.m.

A 61-year-old San Francisco man, Leon Hecht, escaped uninjured when his steering gear apparently locked and his car struck a tree on Sir Francis Drake boulevard in Ross shortly before noon yesterday, Ross police reported. Hecht was taken to Marin General Hospital for examination by Asst. Chief L. E. Flowers, but no injury was found.

Razor In Sock Causes Arrest

Jeffrey Arthur Ballantyne of 329 Laurel place, San Rafael, was arrested by Sausalito police early today on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon after officers found a straight-edged razor in his sock.

Police Sgt. David W. Cooper stopped Ballantyne at 2:30 a.m. as he was walking on Bridgeway avenue.

Ballantyne, who said he is a longshoreman, said he carried the "throat slasher" for protection. He was booked at the county jail.

Apartments Sold In Corte Madera

Allison Schofield of San Francisco and Muir Beach has purchased the Mirador Garden apartments on Pixley avenue in Corte Madera for an undisclosed amount.

The sale by H. E. Olson of Tiburon and J. N. Snyder of San Mateo was announced today by George Dreyer, manager of Pierce Realty in San Rafael, who handled the transaction.

Built early this year by Olson and Snyder, the two-story, 13-unit luxury apartment building is managed by Col. Donald Chapman.

Judge Denies Appeal Of Doomed Killer

San Quentin convict Marion James Linden, 45, today lost an attempt through court action to have his execution, scheduled tomorrow, set aside.

Linden, convicted for the slaying of a Los Angeles policeman, filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, but it was denied by Marin Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori shortly before noon.

Linden asked for a writ against Warden Fred R. Dickson, charging that he was threatened with confinement in a mental ward if he did not consent to be questioned by psychiatrists.

Dickson called Linden "a great talker" and a troublesome prisoner. He was convicted in the fatal shooting of Police Officer Leo Wise of Los Angeles on March 16, 1957.

Linden yesterday lost two other attempts to escape the gas chamber. Acting Gov. Glenn M. Anderson announced he would not grant Linden executive clemency, and Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman turned down Linden's plea for a stay of execution.

Restaurant Fire At Ignacio Causes Extensive Damage

A grease fire yesterday in the kitchen of Rickey's Rancho Rafael restaurant, Ignacio, was sucked up a ventilation flue and then spread into the attic, causing several hundred dollars damage.

Novato firemen from the south Novato boulevard station rushed to the restaurant at 4:25 p.m. and chopped their way through the roof to reach the flames. More than an hour was required to completely douse the fire.

Electric Cord Bites Girl Back

Four-year-old Rene Menge of Kay Park, Tamalpais Valley, learned yesterday that if you bite into a live electric cord, it will bite back.

The little girl suffered painful but not serious burns in her mouth when she bit into an electric iron cord while her mother was talking on the telephone.

The mother, Mrs. William C. Menge of 341 Jean street, called the Tamalpais Valley Fire Department, and the girl was taken to the Menge family physician for treatment. She was reported in good condition today.

SOUTH MARIN'S POWER CUT BY SHORT CIRCUIT

Southern Marin was without electric power for six and one-half minutes this morning when automatic switching equipment at the Alto substation went out.

At 9:10 a.m. while crews were working with high pressure water equipment washing dust from insulators at the station, the water apparently caused a short circuit, according to Kenneth E. Robin, southern Marin manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

He said six minutes passed before automatic equipment could reroute the load.

All consumers south of the Corte Madera grade were affected, he said.

when a policeman stops a suspicious driver for questioning. Doran gave no description of the suspect car.

The dispatcher reported that those plates were stolen off a car Friday in San Bruno. Doran did not respond when the dispatcher gave him this information. Apparently, it was then he was gunned down with a .32 caliber six-shooter as he questioned the driver he had stopped.

A green mercury with license SCP-424 almost ran down a pedestrian in Oakland last night around 7:30. The pedestrian took down the license number and called police.

San Francisco police seized a .32 caliber Colt revolver after it was fired in a bar early today. The weapon was discharged by waitress Erma Key, 31, San Francisco, who told police she had purchased the gun from a man named Jessie, a waiter. Police said there was a possibility the pistol may have been the weapon in the Doran shooting.

The manhunt was further intensified last night when the San Mateo County Sheriff's office issued an emergency all-points bulletin for the capture of an auto thief identified as Alexander Robillard. He was known to be armed with a .32 caliber weapon.

Sheriff Capt. John G. O'Brien said Robillard was "one of the few suspects we are looking for" in the search for Doran's slayer.

A blood-smeared application for a driver's license was found clutched in the dead patrolman's hand. It was made out with a fictitious name and false address but was believed to have provided a description of the killer.

It bore the name David Steven Kehoe. He was described as being 23, 5 feet 10, 175 pounds, single and with grey eyes and black hair.

Officer Doran was a four-year veteran on the police force. His home was in Burlingame. His two sons are aged 11 and 15, and his widow, Alice, expects a third child in November.

Babs Hutton Buys Huge Wardrobe

PARIS (AP)—Barbara Hutton is spending several hundred thousand dollars for more than half of Lanvin-Castillo's new collection of fall and winter fashions.

Asked about one report that the bill totaled $200,000, a spokesman for the house replied, "Oh, a lot more than that."

The Woolworth heiress will have plenty of changes for the season. Lanvin showed 171 models, including suits, day dresses, cocktail and evening gowns, coats and furs.

The House Public Works Committee in Washington today called for continuation of the interstate highway program at a high-level rate of construction for the next 13 years.

In doing so, the committee left it up to Congress to find revenues to finance the program.

Today's action tossed back at the House Ways and Means Committee a revenue-slashing plan that would virtually halt the federal-state interstate network next year and slow it down thereafter.

Building Valuation Hits $352,235

Building permits issued by Mill Valley during July totaled $352,235, Building Inspector Preston H. Canfield reported.

The figure compares with $337,125 for July, 1958.

Included in last month's total was $166,000 for nine new single family residences, a new fellowship hall for the First Baptist Church at $25,000, the first unit of the new Methodist Church near Camino Alto at $87,000 and a new real estate office for Cagwin, Seymour and Hamilton for $12,000.

Shocking

CARMI, Ill (UPI)—A windstorm proved a "shocking" experience to Flint, a boxer dog. The dog's owner had fastened him to a television tower guy wire with a chain. As the tower swayed in the wind, it shorted against a live wire, giving Flint a jolt each time it made contact.

He broke away and suffered no ill effects.

Jurors Picked In Trial Of Doctor, Wife

The abortion trial of Dr. Jack Willis and his wife, Josephine, of Mill Valley was scheduled to get under way this afternoon with the calling of the first witness, after the selection this morning of a jury of three men and nine women. Two alternate jurors, both women, also were selected.

Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating said he expected the trial would be a "protracted" one.

Selected as jurors were: David F. La Hue, engineer, Larkspur; David Arter, fire insurance adjuster, Sausalito; Audrey K. Doughty, author, Belvedere; Catherine C. Killen, clerk, Novato; Nona L. Shirley, secretary, San Rafael; Ruth Bodmer, retired beauty operator, Larkspur; Alice Dent, housewife, Mill Valley; Edwin Jacobs, clerk, Mill Valley; Florence Miner, housewife, San Rafael; Beverly Doherty, saleswoman, Kentfield; Sylvia Long, housewife, Novato, and Wilda R. The state Supreme Court rejected Chessman's latest appeal yesterday in San Francisco.

If a new execution date is set, it probably will be in mid-October.

Tomales Board Denies Request For Transfers

The three children of R. B. Hay of Chileno Valley will have to attend Tomales School next month unless Hay wants to put up the money which Tomales Elementary School District loses by the children transferring to schools in Sonoma County.

That was the ruling — of no surprise to Hay—handed down by four members of the Tomales elementary school board last night.

Hay, who has carried his fight to district and county school boards, county board of supervisors and finally back to the district board again, wound up right where he started.

He has objected that the children are closer to Two Rock School and Petaluma Junior High School — or anyhow, just as close. At one point, he tried to have his land annexed to the Two Rock District, but that, too, was turned down.

The troubles of the Hays took up more time of the Tomales board last night than approval of the 1959-60 budget, reported trustee Francis K. Adams. The $35,267 budget, up only slightly from last year, was approved. The tax rate will remain at 80 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Absent was trustee Walton Burbank.

FARMER FINDS NEW SOURCE OF INCOME

VERSAILLES, Ind. (UPI) — Farmer Earl Hayden has found a new source of income.

Motorists trying to avoid a bridge construction project started cutting through Hayden's barn lot and garden. Hayden, after getting nowhere trying to stop them, started charging a 50-cent toll.

The drivers immediately complained to state police, but were told the Hayden toll road was pefectly legal.

Bomb Slayers To Get Hearing

Two men scheduled to die in the San Quentin gas chamber Aug. 16 have been granted a hearing tomorrow by U.S. Dist. Judge Louis E. Goodman in San Francisco.

Manuel Joe Chavez, 27, and Clyde Bates, 38, were granted the new hearing yesterday. They were convicted of the incendiary bomb slaying of six persons in a Los Angeles bar in 1957.

They have maintained that their trial was unconstitutional on several grounds and have asked for writs of habeas corpus.

Corte Madera District Raps Sewage Contract

Directors of the Corte Madera Sanitary District charged in a letter read last night to the Ross Valley Sanitary District directors that Corte Madera is not adequately protected under a proposed new contract Corte Madera once rejected for use of an expanded Greenbrae sewage treatment plant.

The letter was prompted by notification from Ross Valley Sanitary District that, starting Sept. 1, the Corte Madera district would be charged $200 for every million gallons of sewage delivered to the Greenbrae plant in excess of a 175,000 gallons per day limit set by contract between the two districts in 1948.

The Corte Madera district is now delivering 400,000 gallons a day and has just added Paradise Cay subdivision to the district, said Ralph Noah, Ross Valley district manager. Charge under the 1948 contract is $26.10 for each million gallons.

The Corte Madera letter contained no comment on the new $200 per million gallons charge other than acknowledging the notification.

The Ross Valley directors, all five of whom were present, set an adjourned meeting for Aug. 19 to give them time to study the Corte Madera letter, Noah reported.

They also asked J. Warren Nute, district engineer, to present plans and specifications for a $7,000 line replacement on Wood lane in Fairfax so the directors can call for bids Aug. 19.

Takes Hard Way Up

LIBERTY, Ky. (AP) — Motorists thought they were seeing things. Right in the middle of Liberty's main street sat a groundhog. Everytime a car approached, he disappeared.

Road workmen found the groundhog had dug through 18 inches of roadbed and two inches of blacktop to make an almost invisible hole.

Warren Labeled 'Prima Donna'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James B. Utt (R-Calif.) today pictured Chief Justice Earl Warren as one of a number of "prima donnas" on the U.S. Supreme Court.

Without this trait, he said, Warren would not have become chief justice.

Utt's references to Warren were made in a written report to his California constituency. The report criticized "the members of the present court and their sociological philosophies upon which they have based so many of their opinions."

HAFB Craft Hunts Lost Plane In Vain

An SA16 Albatros from the 41st Air Rescue Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base searched for nearly six hours yesterday afternoon for a Tri-Pacer plane with four Sacramento fishermen aboard, missing since Sunday on a flight to Bodega Bay.

The Albatros, piloted by Capt. Victor L. Wright, circled the Bodega Bay land and sea areas. Co-pilot was Lt. M. F. Browning. Also aboard were a navigator and two paramedics.

The search was continuing today, but no Hamilton aircraft were involved during the morning.

Air and ground searching is being conducted by two Civil Air Patrol squadrons from Sonoma County, mainly in the mountainous areas, a spokesman for 4th Air Force at Hamilton said.

Missing are pilot Paul R. Kontra, 29, and three passengers, N. M. Bags, L. C. Hall and Logan Connor.

Mill Valley Council Sets City Tax Rate At $2.09

The Mill Valley City Council by 3-1 vote last night knocked three cents off its proposed tax rate to come up with a final figure of $2.09 per $100 of assessed valuation based on a budget calling for expenditures of $599,359.

This still leaves Mill Valley with the dubious honor of having the highest rate of any incorporated city in the county. Belvedere appears to be runner-up with a tentative rate of slightly under $1.90.

Mill Valley's $2.02 last year was also highest.

The dissenting vote last night came from Councilman George W. Blackwell, who reiterated an earlier statement that he was opposed to a five-cent levy being imposed for library land or improvements "as it has twice been turned down by the voters."

He added that in addition there has been no provision made for library patrons living outside the city to bear a portion of such increased expense.

Blackwell also opposed a four-cent tax addition made last night for planning purposes. He contended that "the planning people should be able to raise this money themselves through facilities open to them." He suggested fees as a possibility.

Mayor Robert D. Huber and councilmen Elizabeth Rodman and Joseph E. Sheeks favored the measure. Councilman Peter H. Behr is vacationing in Europe.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants' tentative budget had anticipated a rate of $2.12. But he informed the council last night that a $10,000 lump sum payment from the Alto Sanitary District for sewer bond redemption payments had made a seven-cent decrease possible. This would have made the rate $2.05.

But a desire for planning funds immediately was expressed.

GAS TAX MONIES

Mrs. Rodman expressed concern over a planning commission request for an overall plan for the Camino Alto and marshland areas, especially traffic problems involved. After lengthy discussion, $2,000 was allocated from gasoline tax funds.

But when former councilman Robert R. Laughead, speaking for the Project 17 recreation group, asked for assistance from local groups, the flood gates were opened on a lengthy discussion on the entire field of marshland planning.

Laughead cautioned against becoming involved "in a $200,000 to $400,000 project which we can't handle." Mrs. Rodman insisted that an overall plan was necessary, not limited to Project 17 plans.

Planning Commission Chairman R. Lannert Iglehart asked for $3,000 to aid planning in the area. Building Inspector Preston R. Canfield agreed as to the need for an overall plan.

FINALLY CONCLUDED

The matter was finally concluded, Blackwell opposing, by adding four cents to the tax rate for "general planning with first emphasis on the Camino Alto-East Blithedale area and using staff personnel."

The proposed rate now stands at general fund, 93 cents; sewer plant, 24 cents; parks, playgrounds and recreation, 20 cents; library, 30 cents; drainage and flood control, four cents; bond interest and redemption, 30 cents; and pension plan eight cents, making a total of $2.09.

Army To Release 2 Defense Sites

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Plans to return leased property now being used as defense sites at Grizzly Peak and Richmond to the original owners were announced today by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers here.

The 66.7 acres of land at Grizzly Peak, leased in 1942, will revert to the East Bay Regional Park District. The four acre Richmond site, leased in 1952, will be returned to the Richmond Development Agency.

Bids for restoration of the property will be opened Aug. 18.

Railroads Seek Coach Fare Hike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Five California railroads today asked permission to increase intrastate coach fares by about 5 per cent.

They told the California Public Utilities Commission the proposed increase would bring intrastate fares in line with interstate increases granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The railroads are the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Western Pacific, Northwestern Pacific and San Diego and Arizona Eastern.

A silver blue mink stole was reported missing yesterday by Evelyn R. Wanstall from her bedroom closet at 252 Red Hill avenue in San Anselmo.

She told San Anselmo police it must have been taken while she was in Lake County last week. Entry was made through an unlocked kitchen window, according to police.

The woman said she did not know the value of the mink stole since it was a gift. Her initials are embroidered on the lining.

I-J NEWSPAPERBOYS VISIT NIKE SITE

A group of 58 Independent-Journal newspaperboys toured the Nike missile launching site at Ft. Cronkhite in South Marin Tuesday. Here the boys are shown riding down on a Nike elevator into the missile launching pit. The boys, in two Army buses, traveled to the fort from San Rafael for a full morning of inspection of the missile site. Army personnel showed them movies of the Nike and Hercules missiles. (Independent-Journal photos)

PROTECTIVE GEAR FOR FUELING —Here the newspaperboys inspect part of the protective clothing worn by Nike battery crewmen during missile fueling operations. The gear provides protection from powerful chemicals used in the missiles, and must be thoroughly washed in a shower before the crewmen may take it off. At left is Julian Leone, I-J circulation manager, who arranged the trip for the boys.

Slim Pofit In Novato Event

The Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the Western Weekend in June, realized a net profit of only $207 from this year's event—$1,100 less than was made from the celebration in 1958.

Robert Robertson, Jaycee president, attributed the low return largely to the extremely hot weather during the weekend of June 19-21. He said the heat probably discouraged many from staying after the Saturday parade to spend money at afternoon activities.

Total expenditures for the Friday and Saturday portion of Western Weekend were $2,275.60; total income, $2,482.56.

"We're going to have to think up some other money-raising activity now to help us raise enough to continue our $500 scholarship given in June to a Novato High School student," Robertson said.

The Novato Horsemen's Assn. and Donald V. Westlund Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars, which jointly sponsored the rodeo on Sunday, have not yet announced the financial results of that portion of the celebration.

Gavras, arrested May 22, received suspension of sentence, probation for nine months, was fined $200, plus a $10 penalty fine, and must not drive, except to work, for 90 days.

HIS CRAVING IS EXPENSIVE

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (AP) —A. D. Cudd, a businessman who's in Anchorage, Alaska, developed a craving for some home-grown peaches. So he telephoned Paul Black, a grower, and asked him to ship a bushel.

The peaches left by air express a few hours later. Shipping charges amounted to $69.88.

State Youth Official Cites Benefits Of Work Camp For Boys

A California Youth Authority official today cited statistics to prove the worth of a forestry work camp for juvenile boys such as the one proposed for Marin County.

B. F. Sherman of Sacramento, for nine years a CYA camp consultant and now a supervising parole officer, said Twin Pines Ranch in Riverside County has kept careful records of its boys. Less than 20 per cent get into further difficulty when they leave the camp, he reported. He compared this to 80 per cent of reform school graduates who get into further trouble with the law.

Sherman appeared on the "Marin Sounding Board" program broadcast by radio station KTIM. The program will be repeated by tape-recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Also speaking on the program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, were Donald A. Jensen, county administrator, and Walter Busher, county probation officer.

Jensen said the Marin County Board of Supervisors must make a decision Tuesday on whether to go ahead with a camp in 1960-61 fiscal year. Aug. 15 is the deadline to submit an application to the state for a construction subsidy.

Jensen estimated construction cost for a 20-boy camp at $120,000, of which 50 per cent would be paid by the state. Operation cost is estimated at $62,000 annually with only about $15,000 to be paid by Marin County.

KENT SITE OPPOSED

Directors of the Marin Municipal Water District have objected to a camp location next to Kent Lake but are willing to work with the supervisors to find an acceptable site on watershed lands, Jensen reported.

Jensen said there would be "no fences and no connotation in any way that it is a jail." He said it is entirely different from the county's juvenile hall which is a "holding facility."

Probation Officer Busher said the forestry camp would fill a need for youths whom the juvenile court wants to remove from an unhealthy home environment but who should not be sent to a state institution. The boys would range between the ages of 14 and 17. Marin County now contracts with Sonoma, San Benito and Tulare counties so Marin juveniles may be sent to their camps.

TEACHES VALUES

Sherman said the camp would teach the value of "honest work," trust for adults built on honesty, how to use leisure time constructively, group living, an awareness of the youth's personal problems, and the democratic process of self-government.

Jensen said the boys would work during the day on fire prevention or water district projects. He proposed to the supervisors that the boys be paid one dollar a day for their work.

New Trustee Takes Seat In Hub City

Mrs. Rose Eiserich, newly appointed trustee of the San Anselmo School District, took her place on the board last night but abstained from voting for the district's 1959-60 budget of $789,721 since she had not had an opportunity to study it, reported Asst. Supt. James R. Jordan.

The budget was approved after an official public hearing last night. No protests were heard. The vote was 3-0, since Trustee Mary Hedin was absent.

Mrs. Eiserich was welcomed to the school board by Mayor Arthur W. Smith and City Councilman Carmel H. Booth, representing City of San Anselmo officialdom. About 10 persons were on hand to greet her. An official notification of her appointment to replace W. P. (Doc) Duhamel, who resigned, was received from County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis.

Ross School Budget Set

A Ross School District budget of $225,437 was adopted last night by Trustees William J. Cassidy, Edith Abbott and David N. Plant. No protests were heard.

Estimated general tax rate to finance the budget is $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation.

The trustees hired a new seventh grade teacher last night. He is William S. Peterson, 30, of San Francisco who formerly taught seventh grade in Detroit, Mich.

The trustees awarded a $250 contract to Ocean Shore Iron Works of San Francisco for a safety device to be attached to the Ross Grammar School's boiler, reported Supt. Stephen L. Parodi.

San Quentin Board Approves Budget

San Quentin School District board last night adopted a budget for 1959-60 totaling $20,533, board member Bruce Russell said.

The budget was up from $17,112 for the school year just ended.

Largest item increased was the amount for salaries, up from $12,773 to $14,120.

Crash Injuries Fatal For Hamilton Man

M/Sgt. Samuel Walter Morrow, 57, of Santa Rosa and Hamilton Air Force Base, died in a Santa Rosa hospital at 1:10 p.m. yesterday from injuries suffered in a Highway 101 crash a mile south of Santa Rosa early yesterday.

Morrow was the non-commissioned officer in charge of the supply section, 78th Supply Squadron, at Hamilton. He lived at 1115 Janero drive, Santa Rosa, with his wife, Ruby, and his grown stepson, William McNiell.

The California Highway Patrol at Santa Rosa reported that Morrow's southbound car left the road and rolled over after being struck in the rear by another southbound car driven by Walter Townsend, 68, of Huntington Park.

Morrow had been at Hamilton since 1957. He was scheduled to retire from the Air Force in Oct.

Besides his wife and stepson, he is survived by two brothers, Frank Morrow of Columbus, Ga., and another who is a merchant seaman presently at sea.

Morrow's body was taken to the Julius S. Godeau Mortuary, San Francisco. Funeral services are set for 1 p.m. Monday at the Hamilton Air Force Base chapel. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

The automotive industry spent an average of $34.52 advertising each car sold in 1958, according to Advertising Age.

Sex Survey Case In Hands Of State Education Board

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California teaching career of a 38-year-old high school teacher who conducted a "little Kinsey" sex survey among his teen-age students was in the hands of the state Board of Education today.

Cecil Cook defended his sex survey as "not harmful" yesterday at the closing of the six-day hearing before a state Department of Professional and Vocational Standards hearing officer.

But, he admitted, "I'm not so sure I would again give the questionnaire at all in light of what has happened. I think there were administrative problems I didn't understand."

Cook, charged with unprofessional conduct, said he now realizes a teacher's obligation is "not to embroil the community" in the type of furor generated by his sex survey.

"However, I don't feel the students were damaged — unless they came there already damaged," he said.

Ross Sanitation Budget Adopted

Ross Valley Sanitary District directors last night adopted a 1959-60 budget of $101,200, to be financed by a tax rate of 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The tax rate is an increase of two cents over last year's rate.

Breakdown of the budget is as follows: $44,700 for salaries of manager Ralph C. Noah, a maintenance superintendent and six maintenance men; $31,500 for maintenance, and $25,000 for replacement of transmission lines.

Torrents Fall On Iowa City

FORT MADISON, Iowa (AP) — Torrential rains inundated much of Fort Madison today as the climax of a severe storm which swept southern Iowa during the night.

The 9.42 inches of rain, which fell in just six hours, sent water of three creeks racing over this city of 15,000 in eastern Iowa. Water-choked storm sewers backed up into basements of houses. About two dozen families were forced from their homes.

The storm poured torrents of water on a wide area of southern Iowa, taking a heavy toll of crops and bridges.

Kistler Charge Possession Of Lewd Films

Former San Rafael newsstand operator Donald D. Kistler Jr., 34, convicted of possession of lewd films, this week was granted a work furlough request in Marin Municipal Court.

Kistler originally was charged with selling lewd films but the charge was reduced to that of possession, and that was what he was convicted of.

It was erroneously reported in the Independent-Journal that Kistler was convicted of exhibiting and selling lewd films and photographs.

THAT'S WHAT THEY THINK OF JETS

Residents of an apartment development near Love Air Force Base at Dallas, Tex., expressed their displeasure with jet noise in no uncertain terms. They painted this sign on blacktop ramp "partly as a joke," said a spokesman, "and partly because we were tired of all that noise." (AP Wirephoto)

Mill Valley Engineer Told To Draw Plans For Widening Of Miller Ave.

The Mill Valley City Council, eager for action on acquiring Tamalpais High School District land for widening and straightening outer Miller avenue, last night instructed City Engineer Albert H. Seimer to prepare plans for the project.

The plans, to call for a four-lane road with at least a 10-foot divider strip, are to be presented by the council to the high school board. At a meeting of city, county and school officials Monday, chairman Howard I. McGill of the high school trustees hesitated to commit the district on the land transfer, contending the plan was too nebulous and the need far in the future.

In contrast to the protracted negotiations over the high school land, the city made a quick swap with Marin Municipal Water District to acquire Cascade Reservoir, just outside the city limits. The council approved a trade of a third of an acre of city-owned marshland property, sought by the water district for an equipment yard, for a four-acre parcel including the reservoir.

The Mill Valley council last night also:

1. Accepted the low bid of Lee-Mac Paving Co. of Corte Madera at $16,045.20 for improvement of Bolsa avenue under assessment district proceedings. The engineers cost estimate was $18,759. There were five bidders.
2. Agreed to ask the Marin County Board of Supervisors to stop the proposed apartment construction project in Alto at Tower drive and Ashford as being contrary to the master plan and a potential traffic hazard.
3. Gave approval to the fall festival, to be held Sept. 25-27 under sponsorship of the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce on the municipal parking lot. The city will pay for street decorations. The Council declined to approve carnival rides, but left the way open for small "kiddie rides."
4. Approved a contract with Mark-A-Line, Inc., of Sausalito to repaint white traffic lines for $6,398.20.
5. Instructed City Manager A. E. Almcrants to inform Thomas Collison, publisher of the Mill Valley Record, that the city did not wish to sell any of its property in the marshland at this time but would entertain a lease proposal. Collison had inquired about purchasing a two-acre site.
6. Appointed R. Lannert Iglehart, chairman of the planning commission, and Building Inspector Preston L. Canfield to a liaison committee of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Committee.
7. Approved payments of warrants totaling $22,458.96.

25,000 Drivers Lose Licenses

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — More than 25,000 Californians have had their drivers' licenses suspended in the four months a state crackdown on highway carelessness has been in force, it was announced today.

Robert I. McCarthy, state director of motor vehicles, said there were 7,995 licenses suspended during July—a total that exceeds June suspensions by 2,338. Starting July 1, licenses were suspended on first convictions for drunken driving.

Jewish Services

Sanford Treguboff, executive director of the Jewish Welfare Federation of San Francisco, will be guest speaker at Marin Congregation Rodef Sholom's sabbath eve service at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Jewish Community Center building at 1618 Mission avenue, San Rafael. Refreshments will be served following the service.

POLICE EVEN SCORE WITH TORMENTOR

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The way police tell it, 19-year-old Norman Hicks has a penchant for picking on them.

On Aug. 1 Hicks was arrested after he allegedly was seen driving a car with stolen fender skirts. The skirts belonged to patrolman John Scott. At the time Hicks was discovered wearing a watch which detective Francis Bergmeister said was stolen from his home.

Yesterday Hicks had a hearing before a magistrate after which detectives searched his car. There, officers said, they found a gun. It allegedly was stolen from the home of patrolman John Curran.

Hicks was held without bail for grand jury action while police looked on with satisfaction.

College Board Budget Hearing Set Tonight

A public hearing on Marin Junior College District's proposed 1959-60 budget of $1,146,881 will be held by district trustees at a special meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in Harlan Hall, College of Marin, Kentfield.

The board also is expected to award a contract for installation of a new lighting system for the college football field. Bids will be opened at 3 p.m. tomorrow by college president Ward H. Austin.

Also on the agenda are (1) the salary to be paid an inspector for the lighting project, (2) Discussion of plans for a spectator restroom at the football field and a storage building, and (3) consideration of purchase of a chain link fence for the northeast side of the football field and earth fill for swampy land by Tamalpais Center.

The board will go into executive session to discuss appointment of teachers and "other personnel matters."

Inner space, the actual area of our planet, is made up of 52 million square miles of land surface — including arctic wastes, deserts and mountain ranges.

RATTLESNAKE MEETS DOOM FROM YOUNG WILLIAM TELL

William Tell and Robin Hood had nothing on 13-year-old Marty Langsam. And Marty has the snake skin to prove it.

Marty and three other teen-agers from Sausalito went hiking on Wolfback Ridge yesterday. Marty took along his bow and arrow.

Suddenly, Bill Dueease, 14, let out a yelp.

A rattlesnake was peering at the boys from between two rocks.

Quick as any archer of Sherwood Forest, Marty let fly with an arrow.

The first shot missed. Marty fired again. The second arrow nailed the snake.

Bill and George Kowski Jr., 15, administered the coup de grace with a couple of rocks.

The boys buried the snake's head and skinned the reptile. It was three and one-half feet long.

Marty is a son of David Langsam of 417 Bonita street; Bill, a son of William Dueease of 206 Bulkley avenue; George, son of school trustee George Kowski of 430 Bee street. With them was Henry (Skippy) Knauber, 13, son of H. A. Knauber of 195A San Carlos street.

Home Broken Into In Corte Madera

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Decota at 30 Pacific Queen passage, Corte Madera, was broken into last night while the couple was in San Francisco, police reported today.

Officer Robert Mistron said the intruder entered through a bedroom window, breaking the screen and curtain rod and tearing the drapes. A preliminary check indicated nothing was missing.

Innocent Plea By Suspect In Gun Thefts

San Francisco laborer Madison Beall, 43, charged with breaking into and taking firearms from the New Albion Ranch Gun Club at Inverness where he formerly was employed, yesterday pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court.

He is scheduled to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow for a preliminary examination. Beall, represented by the public defender's office, asked for and received from Judge Harold J. Haley a reduction of bail from $2,000 to $1,500.

Officers investigating a report of thefts at the club said they found four of the missing guns in Beall's apartment. Beall has said he bought or traded for the guns from unknown persons.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

What Can We Say To Have You Help Prevent Fires?

This week, with California fires raging out of control on half a dozen fronts, a call for help went out to half a dozen western states asking that men and equipment be sent to California in our critical fire season.

Fire isn't some vague threat somewhere else or in the future. Danger of grass and brush fires here in Marin is critical. We watched a grass fire sweep up a hill inside San Rafael city limits not many days ago. Swift action by fire crews stopped it just before it reached heavy brush in which it could have been unstoppable.

So maybe it's just because we're scared that we keep thumping on the same theme. Maybe it's because our county fire chief is scared. Maybe it's because even our governor is scared.

The governor has issued orders to the Division of Forestry to "rigidly enforce" all fire regulations, warning:

"Those who carelessly, negligently, wilfully, or with apparent disregard for the safety of others, cause the destruction of precious natural resources and are responsible for wildfires, are a menace to our people and to the state and should be dealt with accordingly."

We agree. And yet the thought of punishment is not the deterent which influences us the most. That deterent is the ugly charred skeleton of a home, the stark pinnacle of a destroyed tree, the black blight on a once beautiful hillside, or the smell of a sodden mass just extinguished.

Even these are minor when a life is lost.

Please be careful with fire.

Best Of Luck, Frank Kelly

We're happy that Frank Kelly has another job, one which makes use of his abilities and his long experience.

Somehow we never could adjust ourselves to his work in the sheriff's office, although we admired him for taking it in the face of the hub-bub about a city job offered him.

Now the City of Sonoma has chosen him its chief of police. We know it's going to be hard to move away from San Rafael after all these years. But Sonoma is a beautiful little town. Its people are friendly too.

We hope the Kellys are as happy there as they have been in San Rafael. We wish them all the best luck in the future.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

LOOKS AREN'T EVERYTHING

There was a very good reason why one car in Louisville, Kentucky, wouldn't start.

When the owner turned the key in the self-starter of his $6,800 Cadillac nothing happened. He decided to investigate and raised the hood.

One look was enough. The engine was missing and so were the battery, radiator and transmission. Thieves had done a thorough inside job, leaving the exterior as attractive as ever.

All of us can be deceived by appearances. Because things look all right from the outside, we are too apt to jump to the conclusion that what doesn't meet the eye is in top condition too.

Just as an automobile, no matter how elegant it appears, is useless if its engine is gone, so does the finest looking person lose his true value if he allows his heart, mind and soul to be destroyed.

Help to protect the spiritual life of mankind and you will add lasting meaning and purpose to every outward expression of his inner power.

"The things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen, are eternal." (2 Corinthians 4:18)

Grant, O Holy Spirit, that I may never forget the eternal value of my immortal soul.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Columnist Needs 2 Holes—One In His Head, One In Publisher's

NEW YORK (AP) — How would you like to be a columnist?

If not, you're a rare person.

The letter columnists get most often starts somewhat as follows:

"I've been reading your column off and on for years and feel I could write one just as good, and probably better. How do I go about getting started?"

I usually reply, "It is first absolutely essential that you study Latin and Greek for 10 years, then learn to speak and write at least two other modern languages besides English."

This isn't exactly true, of course. But it does help to weed out a lot of possible future competitors.

All you actually need to become a columnist is two holes — one in your head, the other in the head of the publisher who gives you your chance.

The rest is easy — as chinning yourself with your eyeballs.

The public has the idea that it is simple to write a column every day. But Don Marquis, who did this chore for years until he repented and became a playwright, described it as "digging a daily grave."

The ailments of any trade or craft reflected its stress. The occupational ailments of column writing are ulcers, egomania, hydrophobia, mental hernia and snow blindness caused from long hours of staring at the same blank piece of paper in your typewriter.

Most of the seeming millions of people who yearn to be columnists have the idea they would live in a penthouse and have a chauffeur-driven car. They dream of hobnobbing with Marilyn Monroe and giving advice to Bernard Baruch.

Well, most columnists actually see a penthouse only when they are invited to the home of a rich press agent. And as for Bernie Baruch, if he's ever called me for advice my phone must have been busy.

DOES COLUMNING need any special equipment? No. Nothing beyond a two-pants suit. This is necessary because you have to spend long hours sitting in a swivel chair looking at the ceiling as you wait for an idea. That's hard on pants.

Don't let any columnist ever tell you he thinks up his own ideas. He doesn't. He just sits there until one falls off the ceiling.

WHAT ARE THE columnists' rewards? They are the people he meets. Nobody but a doctor meets more interesting people in more interesting situations. They are also sometimes exasperating.

The most exasperating are those who say to columnists: "Sure I know you write a column. But what else do you do — in all your spare time?"

MUST BE GETTING NEAR QUITTING TIME

NATO THE SWORD

Planes, Some Missiles Are Striking Power

By BEM PRICE

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP) — Manned aircraft and some missiles constitute the striking power — the sword — of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

When you begin asking specific questions about the length of the sword and the temper of its cutting edge, NATO officials become vague.

On a month-long tour of European commands, I frequently was referred to some other echelon which — it usually turned out — referred me to still another in an endless chain.

What the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe, considers an adequate air umbrella for Central Europe has never been announced.

There are 30 short range missile battalions in Europe. The goal is 100 such battalions by 1963.

AT THE MOMENT the heaviest missile counterpunch available to the Allies on the continent itself consists of two Redstone missile groups attached to the U.S. Army, Europe, command at Heidelberg.

A Redstone group contains two batteries and each battery has one firing section. In brief, the Army could launch about four Redstones with atomic warheads simultaneously and about two to three hours later could launch another four.

The U.S. Air Force has a squadron of Matador missiles near Sembach, Germany. They are currently being replaced with the 650-mile range, subsonic Mace-A missile, a sort of unmanned bomber.

In December 1957, the NATO council agreed in principle to gird Europe for push-button warfare, using primarily U.S. developed intermediate range ballistic missiles of 1,500 mile range.

An unknown number of such missiles now are deployed near the continent in England.

AS FOR THE REST of Central Europe, only the Netherlands has indicated a willingness to have IRBM launching sites built on her soil.

When NATO came into being the defensive air cover for Central Europe consisted of 400 aircraft, mostly piston-engine types.

Gen. Jean-Etienne Valluy, commander in chief of the Allied forces in Central Europe, estimates that he now can muster between 1,500 and 2,000 jet aircraft — fighter-bombers and fighter-interceptors. The ratio of interceptors to bombers is secret.

For long range striking power, the Allies can bring to bear the deep penetration capabilities of the U.S. Air Force's Strategic Air Command, which has bases in England, North Africa, Turkey and Spain.

Some Allied forces, especially American, maintain a round-the-clock alert. A certain number of planes and pilots are kept in a constant state of runway readiness.

THE NATO AIR picture was hurt by French refusal to allow atomic bombs to be stored on her soil unless she is given atomic know-how and control of the bombs.

Reinforcing the NATO air forces is the fast-growing West German air force. At present the Germans have about 350 of the subsonic F84 Republic built and some F86 Lockheed jets.

The British have contributed 250 Canberra bombers and Hawker-Hunter supersonic interceptors to the NATO sword force.

The French have declined to integrate their air force into the NATO operation except for a few Mystere IVs and F86s in Germany.

By and large, the U.S. Air Force, equipped with "century series" aircraft — F100s through F104s — constitutes the backbone of the defensive and counter-offensive air forces in Central Europe, about 1,100 planes.

The Danes, Belgians and Dutch have small forces, flying mostly F84s and F86s.

EAST OF THE Iron Curtain in the satellite nations and along the Russian border 300 airfields are reported. The Soviets are said to have a 20,000 all-jet air force, including 5,100 medium bombers and 200 long range heavy bombers.

The Russians also are said to be building a number of missile launching sites for their 700-mile range M103 missile in the satellite nations and pads for their 1,500-mile missile, the T2, along their western borders.

ADDED UP, this means that the Soviets probably have a missile and air superiority over the Allies as of today.

Neither side has much of an air defense capability though it is believed that the Russians are rushing production of an air defense missile similar to the U.S. made Nike-Ajax and Nike-Hercules, both of which are designed to provide intense defense for a relatively small area.

(TOMORROW: Chain of Command, does it work?)

Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District worried over possible creation of a transit district in Marin County and acquisition of Northwestern Pacific's rail-ferry service to North Bay cities.

Drivers' license bureaus in Mill Valley, Sausalito and Pt. Reyes Station were closed due to economy with all Marin examinations henceforth in San Rafael.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Says Fluorine Is Destructive

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

One wonders how many imbibers of "cool, refreshing fluoridated water" — (I.J., July 28) — would have delighted in same — or even swallowed a drop of same — had the enclosed discussion of the effects of fluorine compounds been posted alongside the water container!

Said enclosure is, you will please note, an article which appeared in the Journal of The American Medical Association — Feb. 10th, 1951. This was before fluoridation became such a heated controversial issue, involving vested interests — and therefore taboo for professional statements — so far as many M.D.'s and dentists are concerned.

It clearly and officially establishes fluorine as destructive to the body — albeit over a period of time — usually. The fact that sodium fluoride has neither color, taste nor odor makes the situation even deadlier — People drink "cool refreshing fluoridated water" never suspecting it's poison!

Compulsory mass medication is unthinkable in a free land where the sovereign right of each individual should be inviolate —

Fluoridation of public water supplies is compulsory mass poisoning . . .!

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Did you ever stop to wonder what makes the tires of an automobile squeal when you turn a corner, or start or stop suddenly? It isn't only excessive speed that causes the squeal, insists A. E. Kimberly, chief engineer of an automobile maker. Other contributing factors are tread design of the tires, under inflation, your car's front end suspension system, wheel alignment, and the type of road surface on which you may be driving. The basic source of squeal, concludes Kimberly, is side slip. When the tire "slips" sideways over road surfaces, however little, the noise is similar to that caused by rubbing two inflated balloons together.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

What Are The Problems That Face Woman Reporter On A Marin Beat?

A solicitous newsman once counseled me to read Marguerite Higgins autobiography. He thought it might cure me of the notion that a woman had any business in the newspaper business.

I have since concluded that one's survival (careerwise) depends on the time, the place and what you are after.

Surely a woman is at no particular disadvantage when she is sitting through a four-hour-long city council meeting. Unless, perhaps, she feels a tendency to fall asleep. Then she must invent various strategies for keeping awake.

(I have found that a nice swim before an evening meeting keeps the blood percolating to the brain cells better than most other methods. This is the mid-summer remedy to sleep-inducing meetings.)

But even in Marin County there are some slight occupational hazards for a newspaper reporter (female variety) trying to be intrepid.

ON SATURDAYS and Sundays when the secretarial staff is absent, entry to the California Highway Patrol's locker room must be made cautiously.

This particular spot is where accident reports are kept locked in a box which may be opened only by the sergeant on duty.

This locale is also where the patrolmen gather when they change shifts. When they change shifts they also change clothes.

It is safest to bang on the door and inquire first if the coast is clear before entering. Especially if one blushes easily.

ANOTHER SOMETIMES touchy subject is rape. It's been known to happen or alleged to happen in Marin County.

The method of conveying this sort of information is painless enough when it is all typed up on a police report. When one must question an officer about a rape, however, all of a sudden he is apt to become very reticent out of pure gentlemanly instincts.

But in a clinical century such as this, anything that can be printed in a "family newspaper" can be told to a woman reporter. Which is not to say, however, that her male colleagues would not pick up additional spicy details that are withheld from her. Ordinarily these are the details that can't be printed, so she is saved from the wrath of her city editor.

ON THE OTHER hand, there are some distinct advantages to being a woman engaged in newspaper reporting. One is your protective coloring as an "undercover agent."

At a crowded school board meeting in outer suburbia, for instance, you pretty well blend in with the landscape.

Those who are voicing their opinions are not inhibited by the thought that they might be quoted. They don't know anyone is there taking down what they say.

Any longtime newspaperman looks exactly like what he is: a longtime newspaperman. There's no mistaking what he is at a meeting to do. With a woman, sometimes it's different.

A CALCULATED RISK

Calm, Not Peace In Mr. K's Visit

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is taking a calculated risk in accepting an invitation to visit the United States.

His exchange of visits with President Eisenhower will permit an unusual calm to settle over the main arenas of the cold war for a couple of months. But there is no reason to suppose that peace has broken out.

Khrushchev has long indicated he badly wanted the invitation to America. He maneuvered industriously to get it. But why was he so eager?

KHRUSHCHEV'S projected few days in Washington and President Eisenhower's in Moscow will be in effect a meeting at the summit, a two-sided meeting with other countries on the outside.

The Western Allies are being reassured and are making noises like they are welcoming the exchange. By the time Khrushchev gets through, they possibly will be wondering what really went on behind closed doors.

The idea that Khrushchev is thinking along such lines cannot be discarded, for he is known to have entertained a notion of splitting the Allies by hinting at a possible two-way deal.

BUT THERE IS some risk for Khrushchev himself. The same uneasiness he may seek to arouse among the Western Europeans also can be provoked among the Chinese Communists. A Moscow-Washington display of peace, friendship, and all's right with the world can hardly make Peiping sublimely happy.

Red China is in no position to flirt with the idea of world peace. It has too far to go, straining every muscle to make its own revolution succeed. It needs an American enemy.

Coming on top of the obvious failure of the Big Four foreign ministers to agree on Berlin and Germany, the sudden outbreak of exuberant good will might be viewed as an unexpected, highly welcome ray of light.

But the Berlin affair is working out as predicted by those familiar with Soviet ways. Khrushchev issued an ultimatum. To carry through on it would have been a grave risk. To back down would have been awkward. What better solution than to leave the whole matter up in the air while Khrushchev lumbers about the United States?

KHRUSHCHEV PROBABLY has other reasons for wanting to come to America.

It's likely he wants to measure the climate of American opinion. This was done for him by two first deputy premiers, Anastas I. Mikoyan and Frol R. Kozlov. But possibly Khrushchev believes neither.

Khrushchev possibly considers Americans suckers for a broad grin and hearty handshake.

BUT THE UNITED States has much to gain by the exchange. Vice President Richard M. Nixon's reception in the Soviet Union and Poland already has indicated this.

There is no possibility of converting Khrushchev from his belief the Communist revolution must triumph through out the world. But Khrushchev represents a fading generation of one-track mind Bolsheviks.

The Russians now are going to have a close look at Eisenhower, the leader of a government they have been told is intent on devouring them. For the Russians, it cannot help but be a healthy experience.

The Country Parson

"Folks who wish they could have fun all the time don't realize it wouldn't be fun to have fun all the time."

THIS HUSBAND HAS REASON TO BE MIFFED AT THE MRS.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A fake $5 bill sneaked out of the trousers of a sleeping husband by his wife proved to be a pivotal clue in helping the U.S. Secret Service break up a $10,000 counterfeit ring.

Asst. U.S. Atty. K. Francis Murrell said yesterday the four-month-old investigation took a climactic turn when Mrs. Dallas S. Barr fished the $5 from the pocket of her cab-driver husband.

He said Mrs. Barr bought some dry goods and handed the merchant the $5 bill, unaware that it had one blank side.

The merchant called police. Secret Service agents raided Barr's home last weekend and found the $5 bill and printing plates.

Arrested were Barr, 28, and four accomplices.

Duplexes In Larkspur Delayed By Protests

Protests of a rezoning to permit three disguised duplexes to be built at Myrtle avenue and Eden street in Larkspur slowed down the project for at least two months last night.

The Larkspur City Council agreed to place the rezoning application of Primo Pinotti on the agenda of its October meeting and asked Pinotti to submit plans for improvement of the two streets to city standards.

Pinotti's home, which faces on Hazel avenue, is on a site one and one-fourth acres in area. He proposes to add three duplexes and a swimming pool on the property. City Councilman Orrin Gray told protesting neighbors the zoning requested by Pinotti is "a new zone the council saw fit to establish for home-type duplexes."

Fifteen persons signed a letter asking the council to deny the rezoning from single-family residential, branding it "spot zoning." The letter also cited low water pressure in the area.

Mayor Daniel Allen commented: "The term spot-zoning has been bandied about quite a bit, but the property is surrounded on three sides by other kinds of zoning."

Albert Bevan of 5 Hawthorne avenue and Mrs. Warren Griffith of 55 Walnut street were the most outspoken in their opposition to the duplexes.

Mrs. Griffith said if the duplexes are allowed it will be a first step toward downgrading the neighborhood and would "spoil the whole hill." She said a realty man had told her the duplex zoning would reduce the value of surrounding property by one-third.

In another zoning matter, the council by unanimous vote granted a variance to Dr. and Mrs. Russell J. Merret to build a drug store and two shops, with offices upstairs, on a 100-foot-wide lot between their medical building at 1022 Magnolia avenue and the Masonic Temple.

The council received a report by letter that a building at 300 Alexander street is still being occupied by three families, despite notification to owner Charles Huff that the structure is in a single-family residential zone. City Manager Ronald E. Piper was asked to make another effort to have the triplex abated. The letter to the council was signed by Mrs. Lambert Meyer, Edward H. Partmann and J. G. Lewis.

Larkspur Moves To Set Up Road Improvement District

The Larkspur City Council moved last night to form an assessment district to improve Tamalpais, Holly, Orange and Hazel avenues and directed that plans and specifications be prepared.

City Engineer John C. Oglesby told a group of four property owners that a petition to form the assessment district should have signatures of owners of 60 per cent of the area and assessed valuations of the property involved.

The reason, explained City Atty. Samuel W. Gardiner, is that a majority of the owners in either category can stop the assessment district.

The project would include a subgrade with a 30-foot width on all four streets. Holly and Orange would get a new pavement 24 feet wide, and Hazel and Tamalpais 16 feet wide. The city would pay for future widening, it was agreed last night.

On another proposed assessment district, to improve Oak road and a portion of Redwood road, the council asked Oglesby to make a rough estimate of what it would cost. Thirteen property owners requested formation of the district.

In other business last night, the Larkspur council:

1. Introduced an ordinance setting the amount of revenue to be raised by taxes in 1959-60 and adjourned until Aug. 12, when the ordinance is to be adopted. The ordinance sets a sum of $11,285 to be raised city-wide plus specific amounts in special assessment districts. This is to be raised by a total city tax rate of $1.63 per $100 assessed valuation.

2. Approved a final map for Greenbrae Subdivision 12, which lies between Greenbrae Subdivision 11 and Bret Harte Heights Subdivision 1 in San Rafael. Schultz Development Co. has portioned the new subdivision into 70 lots for single-family dwellings.

3. Voted to abandon a small portion of the Bon Air road right of way east of Hillview Gardens in return for another new portion dedicated by Crown Development Co., in order to align the new road.

4. Tabled a proposal from County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that the county health department charge fees for sanitary inspections. City Manager Ronald E. Piper said he considered it unfair for contractors to pay city business licenses and then pay inspection fees on top of that.

5. Learned by letter from Douglas Black, public accountant, that the city's books were in order for the 1958-59 fiscal year. Balance on hand as of June 30 was $144,478. Last night the councilmen approved warrants totaling $18,912.

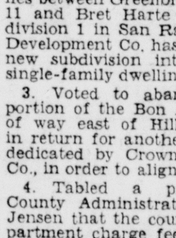
Real Estate Views And Values

"A few years ago, when Dick Middleton decided to locate here, we sold him a nice house. Therefore, it was only logical that he called us when he decided to sell and move back to his former city.

"I've lost my confidence," he said, "and all because I made a poor sale on the house I owned back there. A fellow I knew asked to buy our house when he learned we were leaving. I sold it to him myself on a shoestring contract."



Nancy Kopf

"He has been playing cat and mouse with me ever since. He drags his feet on payments. Then when I get sore and serve him with formal notice to pay or else, he'll scrape up the money. But, the situation eats on me. It's a mental block I can't surmount. For two years now, it's held me back in business. I get to worrying about it and can't concentrate on my work. So, I'm going to sell out and go back where I came from."

Naturally, our client's problem concerned us. But we proposed a different solution. We urged him to sell the "contract" on the former house, even at a discount, and make a fresh start here. He did—and his business is gaining now that the big "worry" is over.

SHE'LL ENTER DRAKE HIGH

Japanese Girl Busy Learning U. S. Ways

FIRST EXCHANGE STUDENT — Michiko Sekino, from Japan, who will enter Sir Francis Drake High School as a senior next month, watches as her American "sister," Janet Joslin, plays the piano. Janet plays swing. Michiko also is a pianist, but prefers classical compositions. (Independent-Journal photo)

By DIANA BRUCE

A diminutive Japanese girl, whose first name is the same as that of Japan's crown princess, has begun to learn American ways first hand, Marin County style.

She is Michiko Sekino, a 17-year-old from Tokyo who can't quite get used to the way American girls wear Bermuda shorts on the street.

Michie (pronounced mee-chee with the accent on the first syllable) arrived Tuesday to spend the 1959-60 school year with the H. W. Joslins at 130 Hidden Valley lane in Sleepy Hollow.

She and Janet Joslin, who is 16, will enter Sir Francis Drake High School next month as seniors.

Michie is the first of Marin County's American Field Service 1959 exchange students to arrive.

In Tokyo, Michie attended a private girls' school run by a Catholic order.

The Japanese school year is divided into two semesters, one running from April to September and the other from October to March.

A short vacation period between each semester is not exactly carefree. The students are expected to study for final examinations, which are given at the beginning of a new semester on the previous semester's work. A three-month summer vacation is unknown in Japan.

At Michie's school the girls wear navy blue skirts, white middy blouses with navy sailor collars and cuffs, and black knit ties. Traditional school uniform for boys in Japan is a black suit adorned with gold buttons, Michie said.

She was surprised to find girls wearing every variety of trousers but few skirts on a hot day in Marin County. Michie brought only dresses with her. As a gift from Janet she now has a pair of white shorts and a red figured blouse.

A different mode of living has brought changes in dress to Japan, however. The kimono is no longer worn by young people, Michie said.

Her mother, she said, wears a kimono on New Year's Day, which is the most important holiday of the year in Japan.

Masakazu Sekino, her father, is a chemical engineer with a glass manufacturing firm in Tokyo. She has a brother, Masaaki, 20, who is a student at Keio University in Tokyo, and a sister, Yukiko, 15, who attends the same school as she does.

Her name, Michiko, is the same as that of Japan's crown princess. They have the same nickname, too.

The meaning of the name has three components: "Mi" means beauty, "chi" means wisdom, and "ko" is a diminutive meaning child.

Her hosts, the Joslin family, consist of Joslin, a general contractor, his wife, daughter, Janet and her brother, Bob, who is 19 and a sophomore at Oregon State College.

The Drake exchange student's stay under the American Field Service is partially financed by a San Anselmo Rotary Club scholarship. Michie was one of 15 Tokyo students chosen to come to the United States. They were gleaned from a field of 600 who took a qualifying examination.

Already Michie has been to a baseball game and eaten a hot dog.

She has noticed especially the American penchant for do-it yourself.

"For us, we ask someone to paint the house or cut the trees for us," she explained.

Michie and Janet share an interest in the piano. Michie plays classical music and Janet popular music. Michie admitted that rock 'n roll is not her favorite but said that "Japanese students don't dance as much as Americans."

In Japan dating in high school is not widespread. Michie estimated that less than one-third of her class has dated. It is customary for girls to go to movies or games with each other or accompanied by their families. Michie, who will be 18 on Aug. 30, has never had a date.

HE DIDN'T GET RID OF GUN SOON ENOUGH

DILLON, Mont. (AP)—Frederick D. Arbour, 35, feared his sons might have an accident with a rifle he owned.

So he decided to sell it. Preparatory to offering it for sale, he sat down to clean the gun.

It discharged, killing him.

Wife-Beating Count Killed

A wife-beating charge against Kenneth Edward Good, 43, a Mill Valley taxi driver of 18 Morning Sun avenue, was dropped yesterday in Marin Municipal Court.

Judge Harold J. Haley dropped the charge on motion of the district attorney's office that there was lack of proof in the charges.

Good was jailed June 18 after it was reported to police that he sent four terrified children from the house to seek cover in bushes and neighbor's homes during an altercation with his wife, Mrs. Mary Baker Good, 35. Mrs. Good suffered a two-inch scalp wound and a broken middle finger on her left hand.

Madman With Shotgun Kills 2 In Aged Home

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A madman fired repeated shotgun blasts into a crowded dining room of a home for the aged today, killing two of the residents and wounding four others.

He was then wounded and captured in a battle with police riflemen.

The gunman, Kyrlo Czupirczuk, 42, an unemployed carpenter, had been placed in an institution earlier this year after sending threatening letters to President Eisenhower. He was released in April. He babbled incoherently after his capture and police were unable to determine what imagined wrong led to his outburst.

About 150 residents of the Uptown Home for the Aged were gathered for breakfast in the first-floor dining room when the gun blasts started from the adjoining home where Czupirczuk lives.

Shotgun pellets shattered windows and sprayed residents of the home. Several fell to the floor. Others ran in wild confusion. Some of the more elderly and infirm sat stunned.

Killed were Kalman Galer, 79, and Michael Berman, 84.

Wounded residents of the privately operated home for Jewish people were Samuel Kluger, 74; Pincus Kalter, 77; Abraham Yusem, 85, and Barney Kline, 66.

Police riflemen exchanged several volleys with Czupirczuk, who was in a second floor window. Then, fearful for the safety of the residents nearby, they charged into his home, smashed down the door to his apartment and shot him several times. He apparently had been wounded and stunned previously.

Concrete Poured For Foundations Of Ward Store

Pouring of concrete foundations for the new Montgomery Ward and Co. store at Corte Madera Shopping Center was started yesterday by Bishop-Mattei Construction Co. of San Francisco.

The firm has a $940,000 contract to build the two-story outlet, plus a Ward's auto service center and a branch office of San Rafael's First National Bank.

Board Fills Four County Positions

Riffle as senior stenographic clerk, auditor's office, at $358.

The winner of the Miss America contest is given a $10,000 scholarship.

VALDES VANQUISHED

Nino Valdes of Cuba falls to canvas as he was knocked out by Sonny Liston in third round of their nationally-televised heavyweight fight last night in Chicago. Referee Bernie Wiseman directs Liston to a neutral corner before starting the count of 10. Story on page 12. (AP Wirephoto)

Pressure? McCovey Never Heard Of It

Willie McCovey, the San Francisco Giants' rookie with dynamite in the tip of his bat, laughed off the word "pressure" when he joined the club last Thursday and he can still do it.

"Pressure? It never bothers me," murmured the six-foot, four-inch cobra man that afternoon after he had whacked two triples and two singles off Philadelphia's Robin Roberts. It happened in the first major league game that McCovey ever had seen.

Since then, his average has dropped from 1.000 to .462 but he remains cool and unruffled. That figures. The new first baseman crashed two whistling homers off Milwaukee's Bob Buhl yesterday to bring his number of extra base hits to seven in six games. Five other blows have been singles.

McCovey was a one-man riot in the Pacific Coast League until July 30 when the slumping Giants deprived their Phoenix farm club of his talents. Since his advent, San Francisco has won five out of six and was back in first place this morning.

At the same time, Orlando Cepeda has been dispossessed of his regular first base spot and moved to left field after having a bad time at third.

"They're pitching me all over while looking for weak spots," the rather dignified McCovey declared after his big day against Buhl. "But they all have to throw the ball over the plate."

It is a homey philosophy that has come to a 21-year-old native of Mobile who is in his fifth year of organized ball. He was first spied by scouts Alex Pompez and Dale Alexander. The Giants put him to work at Sandersville of the Georgia State League in 1955. He batted .305 there while driving in 113 runs in 107 games.

Then he moved on to Danville, Va., Dallas and Phoenix. "Stretch" batted .319 for the Pacific Coast League club last year and was blasting away at a .377 rate this season when Giants' President Horace Stoneham ran up the distress signal.

At the end of each game the sports writers open a small convention around McCovey's locker. Slowly he slides his long frame into his street clothes while answering questions in a barely audible voice.

And he plays it smart. Several times he has been asked to compare Coast League hurling with the major league variety.

"I wouldn't be about to know until the end of the season," McCovey always answers.

"Hey, McCovey!" old Hank Sauer roars from across the room. "Tell 'em you hit a knuckle ball pitched underhand at three-quarters speed!"

But whether it's a little ribbing or a lot of earnest quizzing, McCovey so far has taken it all in his stride. And it's a big one.

McCovey 'Joke' Not Funny For Braves

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They were kidding Fred Haney, the National League All-Star manager, about Willie McCovey. Somebody asked why McCovey, a rookie who came up from Phoenix last Thursday, wasn't on the all-star squad.

Haney joked right back. "I'm told that this Willie simply wasn't available," he said. "He already was up in Cooperstown getting measured for a plaque."

That was a couple of days ago, Haney hadn't seen McCovey at the time. He probably wishes now that he never did see him for McCovey knocked his Milwaukee Braves right out of the National League lead and has San Francisco on top again today.

McCovey gave the Giants a first-inning lead with a 380-foot homer off Bob Buhl. After Willie Mays' double scored Jim Davenport with the tie-breaking run in the eighth, McCovey tapped Mr. Buhl for another home run, a two-run 400-footer that nailed down a 4-1 victory. Jack Sanford went all the way with an eight-hitter for his 10th triumph.

Billy Rigney, manager of the Giants, continued to juggle his lineup. He played Orlando Cepeda, his first baseman recently shifted to third base with sad results, to left field. Cepeda looked much better as he made a spectacular catch of Hank Aaron's foul drive in the eighth inning.

DODGERS WIN

The Braves dropped to third as the Los Angeles Dodgers remained within one-half game of the top by downing the Cincinnati Reds 6-3 on the hitting of Duke Snider and the pitching of Johnny Podres.

Doubles by Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson behind a walk gave Cincinnati two runs in the first and they made it 3-0 in the second. Then Snider homered in the second, drove in another with a single in a three-run third and added the final tally in the eighth with his 16th homer. Podres drove in a run in the fourth. Bob Purkey (10-11), first of three Cincinnati pitchers lost.

BROGLIO STARS

Ernie Broglio, St. Louis rookie, pitched his third big league shutout, a four-hit, 3-0 job against Pittsburgh. Singles by Joe Cunningham and Wally Shannon and Hal Smith's infield out gave the Cards a second-inning run, enough to cost Bob Friend his 14th defeat. They added two unearned runs in the eighth off rookie Fred Green.

Philadelphia hopped on Bill Henry, the Chicago Cubs' usually reliable relief man, and scored two in the ninth for a 6-4 victory. It was the Cubs' seventh straight defeat. Gene Conley got ninth inning help from Taylor Phillips to earn his 10th victory.

In the American League, Washington finally broke its losing streak after dropping its 18th in a row to Cleveland 7-3 in the first game of a doubleheader. The Senators won the second game 9-0. Chicago beat Baltimore 2-0, but lost the second game 7-1 and remained two games ahead of the second-place Indians. New York tripped Detroit 3-0 and Boston clubbed Kansas City 17-6.

Oil Need Changing?

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new instrument enables service station attendants to tell at a glance whether your car needs an oil change. It is called the Fotoscope and was developed by the Mobil Oil Co.

A few drops of crankcase oil from the dipstick are placed in a "cell" of the Fotoscope and a light beam is passed through it. The amount of light that passes through is measured by photo-electricity and is shown on a meter, which tells whether the oil is clean or dirty.

ROSENSOHN GUARDED

Violence Feared In Boxing Investigation

NEW YORK (AP) — The fear of violence has been injected into the district attorney's probe of the unsavory circumstances surrounding the promotion of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight championship fight last June.

When Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the bout and until last Monday president of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., left Frank Hogan's office yesterday after answering a subpoena he was accompanied by a detective he acknowledged was a bodyguard.

He did not say whether he had asked for protection or whether is was volunteered by the authorities. Hogan's office declined to comment.

This hint of sinister influences at work came during a day which saw both Rosensohn and his erstwhile partner in the enterprises, Vincent Velella, answering subpoenas from the district attorney's office. There also was the announcement by the New York State Athletic Commission that it was starting a full-scale investigation.

Velella's attorney, Raphael Koenig, said his client had been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury Friday morning. Rosensohn said he tentatively was asked to return to the district attorney's office under subpoena Aug. 28.

Velella, whose falling out with Rosensohn precipitated the investigations, and Rosensohn appeared separately before Asst. Dist. Atty. John Bonomi, who is conducting the probe.

He took a verbal potshot at Rosensohn when newspapermen asked him what was wrong with Rosensohn.

"He quit because he can't take orders," Velella said. "He's just a boy trying to do a man's job. He's made some wild statements that can't be documented."

Rosensohn, when asked if "the underworld boys are in the picture," replied he did not know, but said he had signed away his rights in the promotion because he had to. He declined to comment when asked if he had been threatened.

In Goteborg, Sweden, Johansson's advisor, Edwin Ahlquist, welcomed the news of the investigations and also the information that Johansson's purse for the June fight in which he knocked out Patterson in the third round had been released by a New York court.

The purse had been held up by an attachment filed by Eddie Machen and the Chicago Stadium Corp. In their suit for $1,229,375 damages against Johansson, Patterson and others, Machen contends he was promised a rematch with Johansson before the Swede met Patterson for the title.

Maj. Gen. Marin Krulewitch, chairman of the state Athletic Commission, assigned commission attorney James P. Fusscas to investigate Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., and Floyd Patterson Enterprises, Inc., and all other aspects of the promotion.

Many And Varied

GOOCHLAND, VA. (AP) — A new lake was opened and the owner invited friends to come and bring their favorite boats. One brought an army DUKW and he had to remove a support or a 10-foot gateway to let the 11-foot wide vehicle into the state. The prize for the smallest boat went to a man who brought an inner tube, inflated it, raised an umbrella and sculled across the lake using a paddle supported by his raised knees.

LARKSPUR LAD SURVIVOR IN NAT'L TENNIS

PHOENIX (AP) — Keith Stoneman of Greenville, S. C., the only unseeded player to reach the quarter-finals of the National Jaycee Tennis Tournament, today faces the junior division's top-ranked Bill Lenoir, Tucson, Ariz.

Stoneman pulled the first upset of the tournament yesterday eliminating eighth-seeded James Parker of Creve Coeur, Mo., 2-6, 6-3, 6-3, in the fourth round.

Lenoir breezed past Gary Peterson of Wayzata, Minn., 7-5, 6-4, and Richard Hall of Manitowoc, Wis., 6-2, 6-3.

Californians remaining in the junior quarter-finals are Dave Sanderlin, El Cajon, and Tom Edlefsen, Oakland.

Californians still in the boys division are Reed Witt, Larkspur, and Jerry Cromwell, Long Beach.

Witt is fifth-seeded. He is a sophomore at Redwood High School.

Repeat Performance

CINCINNAI (UPI) — In 1946, Fred J. Mayer was trying to escape in a stolen car when patrolman George Rees shot him in the right side.

Recently, Mayer, who was suspected of cracking several safes, once again tried to escape in a stolen car. Once again it was Rees, now a detective, who tried to stop him. Rees' bullets missed their mark, but Mayer was captured when the car crashed.

PRO FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Mac, St. Clair Sparkle For 49ers; Cards Clobber Argos

Combined AP and UPI

All was smiles around the San Francisco 49er camp today after Hugh (The King) McElhenny gave indications he was ready for another big year.

McElhenny shook loose for several long runs during a 20-minute scrimmage yesterday.

The coaching staff also lauded mammoth Bob St. Clair, long a star offensive tackle, who stood out at defensive end. St. Clair and Center Frank Morze may be shifted to the defensive line this year if some of the team's beefy rookies can be found for offensive line duty.

Rookie Mike McCluskey of Washington and veteran Jim Ridlon were sidelined because of illness and injury respectively. Both the defensive backs will be out of action for several days.

IT IS doubtful whether Toronto Coach Hamp Pool meant to be taken so literally by the Chicago Cardinals when he said he welcomed the chance to play the National Football League club because of the use of unlimited blocking.

"Football is blocking and tackling and it is not right that anything should stand in its way," he said referring to the Canadian rules that limit blocking to the area around the line of scrimmage.

The Cards didn't let anything stand in their way last night as they ground out a 55-25 exhibition victory of the Canadian Big Four Football Union team. Their line continually opened gaping holes and their rock-ribbed blocking continually kept the Canadian team off-stride.

Only two of the 12 touchdowns came on passes, both thrown by Argo quarterback Ronnie Knox, on loan from the Chicago Bears. The Cards' eight TDs were divided eight ways.

THE COMPETITION at the Philadelphia Eagle Hershey, Pa., camp became so hot and heavy that three fights and a half dozen near brawls broke out as the Birds went through a 45-minute contact workout.

Proverb Jacobs, 260-pound tackle, and rookie tackle Al Benedict, from Syracuse, were the first to square off. Linebacker Tom Lauderback got involved twice, first with halfback Billy Barnes, then with rookie guard Darrel Ashbacher of Oregon.

COACH Mike Nixon of Washington is using the competitive urge to help him get a second string quarterback behind Eddie LeBaron. Newcomer Eagle Day of Mississippi and veteran Ralph Guglielmi will oppose each other today in an intra-squad game.

VINCE LOMBARDI of Green Bay is doing much the same thing. He plans to use a veteran offensive team headed by Paul Hornung and Lew Carpenter against a rookie defense; and a rookie offense headed by Alex Hawkins of South Carolina and George Dixon of Bridgeport, Conn., against a veteran defense in a Saturday scrimmage.

Liston Ready For Shot At Title, But . . .

(Photo on Page 11)

CHICAGO (AP) — Pep Barone, manager of heavyweight Sonny Liston, is in a quandary.

"I've got a contender and can't get anywhere with him," he said. "I don't think that Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson rematch will ever come off. I think the Swede won't defend his title for some time and nobody will put pressure on him to do it.

"Why don't they let my boy fight Patterson? For that matter, why won't Zora Foley (the No. 2 contender) fight my boy? Things are really messed up."

Liston, a 211-pounder, knocked out Nino Valdes, another 211-pounder, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round nationally televised scrap in Chicago Stadium last night.

A left hook to the jaw, a left-right combination and then a steaming right cross sent the big Cuban sprawling. He nearly got up at the count of 10, but not quite. He was a 6-1 underdog.

18 STRAIGHT WINS

It was Liston's 18th straight victory, 16 by knockouts, and he now has won 25 out of 26 starts.

"Valdes thumbed me in the right eye in the first round," Liston said. "I had a hard time seeing out of it. I had to go out and find him and end it in a hurry."

Bobby Gleason, Valdes' pilot, said his tiger never thumbed anybody in his life.

"It was a left jab," he explained.

"I think I'll take Valdes over to Europe where he is appreciated," continued Gleason. "They love him over there. The last time he was there he knocked out his opponent in six fights. Maybe Johansson would like to take him on over there."

Ringside attendance was 2,282 contributing to a net gate of $2,765.

Also to be featured Saturday night are a physique contest and Miss Golden Gate beauty contest. Show will start at 6 o'clock.

Mosk Urges Tighter Cal Boxing Laws

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — "Unsavory and undesirable eastern fight figures" have wormed their way into national television fights. California Attorney General Stanley Mosk charged today.

Mosk made the charge in a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown. He suggested several changes in boxing regulations and state laws, including one which would require "tighter auditing" of fight money "to prevent unlawful depredations of the fighter's purse."

The Democratic attorney general started his investigation of boxing after Los Angeles Promoter Jack Leonard allegedly was beaten June 3.

POLICY PROGRAM

Mosk told the governor that the State Athletic Commission had run into "a serious policy problem" in the promotion of "package fights."

He said the package fights come complete with pugilists, managers and promoter. They are put together by regular and theater television interests as well as "itinerant promoters" such as managers of title holders, preventing close supervision by the athletic commission.

"The public and the press wax enthusiastic because of the prestige of having a big fight," Mosk said. Also, the boxing commission is enthusiastic because its percentage of the gate, its sole source of operating money, would be a healthy one.

"Yet it is these fights, packaged out of state, which carry unsavory and undesirable eastern fight figures as an integral part of the package, or in the alternative as a sub rosa part of the structure," Mosk said.

"Unfortunately, the television impresarios have not demonstrated any great degree of reluctance to deal with criminal elements in the boxing business," he added.

DUMMY PROMOTERS

Mosk said the packaged fight usually results in the setting up of a "dummy" promoter. "We want to know that a guy (promoter) is not just coming out here, picking up the dough and taking it back east for distribution."

He said the fight packaged by so-called itinerant promoters—for example the manager of a "hot" property such as a heavyweight title holder—result in the opponent's becoming "in effect a salaried employee" of the title holder's camp.

On the Leonard facet of the investigation, Mosk said his deputies found that the Los Angeles Police Department had made a "skillful and conscientious" investigation and that a state probe was "unwarranted."

He said the police "concluded that the attack on Leonard was more imagined than real."

Spencer Runs Bases Like A Train, But Some Day He May Be Derailed

Let's consider the case of Daryl Spencer, strong man infielder of the S.F. Giants.

He is regarded as a ball player who plays to win come hell or high water.

Spencer, the last week, has sprung into the limelight because he definitely kicked the ball out of a third sacker's hands after being a cinch out.

CONNOLLY

Don Hoak of the Pirates, or anyone else, could hardly be expected to take that without a squawk. And Hoak didn't. If given a fair to middlin' opportunity, I think Hoak would have kicked the bejabbers out of Spencer. Not because Hoak is any bigger, but because he is a former apprentice in the fight game, a boxer who knows what the average ball player doesn't . . . how to defend himself.

Hoak didn't lose any prestige by seemingly bowing away from Spencer. He merely showed himself to be a sport.

SPENCER naturally wasn't looking for a fight but only to gain third base in a clutch ball game. So you have to say Spencer did right by kicking the ball out of Hoak's hand.

I think that Spencer roars down the paths in the heat of battle like the Overland Limited, and one of these days he is going to be derailed, and that's for sure.

The nicest thing in the Giant-Pirate game in which Spencer and Hoak had their rhubarb, was that none of the Pirate pitchers took up the battle. They didn't "dust off" the Giant batters, including Spencer. And for that I give credit to Manager Danny Murtaugh of Pittsburgh.

I BELIEVE that if Murtaugh has ordered his pitchers to twist the caps of the Giant players, the result would have been a fierce scuffle and maybe someone might have been badly hurt.

Spencer plays no favorites, as he later showed in the same ball game, when he upset Bob Clemente, the Pirate outfielder, to complete a double play.

How long a determined infielder like Spencer can last is a serious question. He is continually exposed to the double play where ball players comes in high with their spikes glittering.

JUST LAST week after he had a scuffle with Hoak, he was compelled to field a double play ball in which Hoak was sliding into second. Fortunately for Spencer, it wasn't even close. But as Hoak slid, one could see his spikes high and shining.

And what would you say if Hoak had cut down Spencer?

Ever since baseball began the hazards of the game have been dealt with lightly. Most of the time the player who gets spiked is regarded as a poor mechanic.

But the truth of the matter is that any player can cut, spike or cripple another if he wants to. It is only the sportsmanship of the players that keeps the accident rate so low.

And Spencer should remember that in the future.

ROD GUN CLUB NEEDS HELP TO FINISH PIER

If you're a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and know how to swing a hammer your services are needed this weekend.

The club, re-decking its fishing pier at Point San Quentin, needs volunteer help to speed up the job. "We hope to get the job finished this month," said Director Gordon Dixon, "but we'll have to have full cooperation from our members in order to meet our goal." The pier has been closed for about a month during the repair job, he said.

Volunteers are asked to report to the pier at 8 a.m. Saturday and Sunday and bring their own hammers. "The heavy work is finished," said Dixon, "all that is left is nailing down the deck."

New Cal Alumni Center Going Up

BERKELEY (UPI) — Construction has begun near Tahoe City on a new $472,000 educational and recreational center for the California Alumni Association, according to association president Mortimer Smith.

Smith said the center is near the new Comstock Acres development and the Granli Bakken Ski Resort about seven miles from Squaw Valley.

The center will be an extension of facilities already used by alumni near Pinecrest, Smith said. Marvin E. Collins of General Contractor Ltd. of El Cerrito is supervising construction.

North Slight Favorite Over South In L.A. Tomorrow Night

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The college football stars of coming years will be unveiled here tomorrow night when the North faces the South in the eighth annual Shrine Football Classic at Memorial Coliseum.

A crowd expected to reach 70,000 or better was anticipated for the contest which in the past has previewed such California prep stars as Ronnie Knox, Dick Bass, Lee Grosscup, C. R. Roberts, Don Shinnick, Sam Brown, Ted Bates and many others just prior to their joining the ranks of collegians.

Marin County fans are looking forward to the performances of two of their bright stars—lineman Ron Snidow from San Rafael and quarterback Jack Sparrow of Novato.

They are only the fifth and sixth Marin Countians to play in the All-Star classic. The others included guard Dick Rush of Tamalpais in 1952, end Mike Watters of San Rafael and guard Willie Hector of Tamalpais in 1957, and guard Dick DeBisschop of Drake in 1958.

Snidow is expected to be used mostly on defense while Sparrow, after sizzling practice performance, should see plenty of offensive action and may be called on to handle most of the passing.

The North squad, coached by Larry Siemering of Santa Cruz and Bill Gott from Stagg, Stockton, has been established a slight favorite. After losing the first four games, the North won the next two and last year played to an 8-8 tie with the South.

The Southern squad is directed by Dave Levy of Long Beach Poly and Frank Nobbe of Fremont of Los Angeles. The team has one of the most publicized passers in years in San Diego quarterback Ezell Singleton who was a prep All-American choice.

To match the South's aerial attack spearheaded by Singleton's throwing, the North has a huge line and was expected to play a defensive game and capitalize on the breaks. It also has, however, a breakaway runner in Leroy Whittle of Berkeley and several others who can break up the game.

Singleton of the South was expected to receive strong support from halfbacks Kermit Alexander of Mt. Carmel of Los Angeles and Dee Andrews, state "player of the year" at Long Beach Poly and one of the most widely-sought prep players in the country by colleges.

For the North Whittle's running will be backed up by players like Vince Darone, Pittsburg; Dick Austin, Monterey; Gary Case, Mt. Diablo, Concord; John Kirby, Santa Cruz and Bob Lazark, Notre Del Rio.

Lad, 16, Fires 70 In National Jr. Golf Tournament

PALO ALTO (AP)—Strong hitters like husky Bruce Richards, 16-year-old Bellevue, Wash., sharpshooter, forged into second round matches of the USGA National Junior Golf tournament today after the bulky opening field of 128 was slashed in half.

Richards blazed around the hilly Stanford course in 70, one under par—the only first round score below regulation figures. He eliminated a tough competitor in Robert B. Kostelecky, La Jolla, Calif. 3-1.

Richard M. Lotz of Alameda, Claude Harmon Jr., of New Rochelle, N. Y., James A. Grant III, Wethersfield, Conn., and Ronald L. Wright, Englewood, Colo., moved up as likely favorites after decisive first round wins. Wright won by the biggest margin, beating Gary E. Allen, Tucson, Ariz., 9-8.

Another lop-sided win was turned in by Gary Polumbus, also from Englewood, who advanced on a 7-5 victory over Michael Dawes, Greenville, S. C.

The tournament is limited to youngsters between the ages of 12 and 17.

San Rafael Stages Junior Olympics Games Tomorrow

San Rafael's fourth annual city-wide Junior Olympics will take place tomorrow at Albert Park starting at 12:30 p.m., featuring the parade of "nations," torch lighting ceremonies and track and field events.

Awards will be presented to the first three winners in each event, Director Joe Rodota announced.

Competition will be broken into age groups of 8-9 years, 10-11, 12-13 and 14-15 for both boys and girls. Events will include dashes, relay races, broad jump and high jump, shot put, and softball throws.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Giants' Brass Tense During Close Games

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

Seals Stadium—Sitting next to the president or vice president of the Giants Baseball Club during a tight game in Seals Stadium is quite an experience.

The president, Horace Stoneham, watches the games from his third floor office windows in the right field corner.

The vice president, Chub Feeney, doesn't stay put in any one seat. He's a roamer.

There are no greater rooters tat Stoneham or Feeney, but they are not shouters. Both are capable of using colorful expressions for good or bad plays. And they intently watch every pitch.

While Stoneham stays put with his office guests, he will roam the office after a tense inning is over. He is much freer than Feeney in cutting or laudatory comments, always spoken in a conversational tone. It's the inflection of his voice that betrays his emotions.

FEENEY, on the other hand, might turn up in the top deck of the press box for an inning or two, in the bottom deck for a half or full inning, the radio booth for another inning or so, and maybe a few innings in his own box along first base line.

The way Feeney is smoking his cigar is a sure indication of how the game is going. Leisurely pulls mean everything is under control and the Giants are winning with laughs. Faster puffs—it's tight and tense. When Feeney starts chewing on the cigar, the enemy has the upper hand.

Sitting next to either of them gives you the feeling of being next to an atomic pile while somebody is monkeying around with the safety rods that keep the nuclear stuff under control.

BOTH STONEHAM and Feeney are capable business executives in the baseball world, but they also know baseball as few club owners do, Stoneham, for instance, does not have a general manager like other clubs. He is his own general manager.

We were telling a friend the other day about what rabid Giant fans goth Stoneham and Feeney are and how they live and die through games. Whereupon, we were a bit startled to hear this reply:

"Well, if I owned that gold mine I think I would want the team to miss the pennant by just a couple of points each year. The crowds would never stop jamming the park.

"Once you win the title, the fans expect you to keep repeating and if you don't then attendance falls off just like it did in Milwaukee after the Braves lost to the Yankees in the World Series.

"But have you noticed the upswing in Milwaukee attendance now that the Braves are in a very hot race and not walking away from the pack as they did last year and the year before?

"YES, SIR, if I owned a baseball club I'd run it like the business it is."

A mighty cynical attitude for our pal to have but, as always, he truthfully stated his feelings.

Whether the Giants do or do not win the 1959 National League pennant, the stockholders of the club can look forward to the pleasure of clipping coupons for at least several more years.

Seals Stadium attendance will pass the million mark this week. Road attendance already is over the million mark.

Hard, Arth Teammates

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn. announced today they will defend their women's crown at the 1959 U. S. National Doubles Tennis Championships opening Aug. 16.

ON TO REDWOOD CITY—These Gallinas Valley All-Stars, who last week won their District 3 championships, travel to Redwood City tomorrow to open play in the Divisional Little League Tournament. The Gallinas boys' first game at Redwood City will be held at 6 p.m. Friday against the winners of tonight's first round game between champions from the Stockton and Vallejo districts. Front row, left to right, are David Dohn, Bill Hall, Jim Langbehn, John Laufer, Stephen Fisher, Michael Gordon, Russell Powell and Bat Boy Jim Taylor. Back row, l to r, Coach Fedorchak, Danny Mammes, David Linch, Bob Cooney, Bill English, Steven Edde, Bob Taylor, John Fedorchak and Manager Grover Wilson.

North Bay Golf Meet Scheduled In Novato

Plans for a first annual North Bay Amateur Golf Championship to be held in Novato next month were announced yesterday by Jim Perrin, professional of the Indian Valley Golf Course.

To be sponsored by the Novato Kiwanis Club, the tournament has been scheduled for Sept. 5-6-7 and 12-13 and is expected to attract many of the outstanding amateurs throughout northern California.

The Kiwanis Club has guaranteed $500 worth of merchandise prizes, Perrin said.

Competition will be divided into four divisions — champion flight for players in the zero to seven handicap bracket; "A" Flight for 7-13 handicappers; "B" Flight 14-19 and "C" Flight, 20-25.

Entrants must have an up-to-date handicap card from the United States or Northern California golf association.

The championship flight will be medal play; the other three flights match play, Perrin said.

"We expect between 200 and 300 entries," the professional said. Deadline for entry is Friday, Aug. 28. Entry blanks are available at most North Bay golf courses, Perrin added.

Marinites Lead Water Poloists In Pan-Am Trials

Two Marin County men will lead the San Francisco Olympic Club's water polo team into trials tomorrow in Chicago for a berth in the Pan-American Games scheduled later this month.

They are Ed Rudloff of Ross, coach of the Olympians, and Bob Kahl of Fairfax, goalie and team captain.

Winner of the tryouts will represent the United States in the Pan-Am Games, also to be held in Chicago.

Mass. To Rejoin NBA

BOSTON (AP) —Chairman Herman Greenberg announced today the Massachusetts Boxing Commission will return to membership in the National Boxing Assn. after a two year absence. He gave no reason.

Althea In Comeback

NEW YORK (AP)—Wimbledon and U. S. champion Althea Gibson ended a year's retirement yesterday when she was named to compete for the U. S. in the Pan-American Games.

Gallinas Stars Open Bid For Area Title Tomorrow Night

Gallinas Valley All-Stars, with the District 3 championship already notched on their belts, hope to take another big step up the National Little League playoff ladder this weekend when they compete in the area tournament at Redwood City.

The "luck of the draw" has boosted the Marin team's chances for the area crown for it has drawn a bye in tonight's quarter-final round and automatically advances to the semi-finals at 6 p.m. tomorrow in Redwood City's Hawes Park. Gazllinas' first game is against the winner of tonight's quarter-final between champions of the Stockton and Vallejo districts. Thus, Gallinas' fresh pitching staff will go against one that already have been worked.

Other teams entered in the area tourney are from the Peninsula and Sonoma districts. They clash in tomorrow's other semi-finals. The championship playoff is scheduled at 4 p. m. Saturday, winner of which will advance to the Divisional Tournament at Santa Cruz Aug. 13-14-15. From there it's to Sacramento Aug. 20-21-22 for the Far West Regional, then on to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa.

Billy English and Bob Cooney, who handled the pitching in Gallinas' District 3 championship games, are expected to handle the hurling again at Redwood City.

Nixon Tour, Ike-Nikita Swap Cold War Thaw U.S. Hope

NIXON AT EASE — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, his feet up and a magazine in his lap, takes it easy during his flight back to Washington yesterday after his trip to Russia and Poland. At right is Edwin F. Russell, a Pennsylvania newspaper publisher. (AP Wirephoto)

Vice President Given Roaring Welcome Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—The end of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's historic trip to the Soviet Union touched off an intense appraisal of its impact on the cold war today.

President Eisenhower and Nixon banked on the vice president's tour and the forthcoming swap of visits by Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to help thaw a dangerous East-West freeze.

PERSONAL REPORT

The hope is that the exchange of visits will impress Khrushchev with America and keep East-West discussions going in the face of the collapse of the Geneva talks on Germany. But Nixon's trip brought no expectation of any immediate turnabout in Kremlin policy in the cold war.

Nixon made a personal report to Eisenhower during a 75-minute conference at the White House yesterday.

There was no immediate plan for a public address to the nation, but Nixon spoke informally on a national radio-TV broadcast after his sleek jetliner had arrived from Warsaw yesterday.

URGES COURTESY

He urged that Khrushchev, when he visits this country, be received courteously.

Nixon hurried to the White House after a roaring airport welcome. Eisenhower was not at the airport, but among the 3,500 greeters were administration and Republican bigwigs and the ambassadors from the Soviet Union and Poland.

GOP boosters waved a big sign: "All America is proud of Pat and Dick."

The first welcomer was little Julie Nixon, 10, who raced up the airplane ramp to hug her parents. Her sister Patricia, 13, was at home with a sprained back, suffered while playing.

Acting Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, head of the official greeting party, thanked the vice president for a "tremendous job."

HE'LL STUDY CORN

Iowa Town Unexcited At Khrushchev Visit

COON RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—This little town in west-central Iowa apparently is taking in stride the news that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may come here to visit farmer Roswell Garst next month.

"I've heard very little comment from the townspeople," said one of the leading citizens, Thomas Rogers, who edits the local weekly newspaper, the Enterprise.

"There's no indication so far that anyone is getting overly excited about it."

In talking to newsmen in Moscow yesterday, Khrushchev said he had been invited by an American farmer named Garst to stay with him and that he probably would.

Garst lives in a big place on the outskirts of this town of about 1,700. His specialty is growing seed corn. He has visited the Soviet Union, has talked with Khrushchev and has sold the Russians seed corn.

Since 1955 several Soviet farm delegations have visited the Garst showplace.

"We're used to Russians coming here," said Rogers. "They stayed at the Garst place, and we did nothing special to entertain them. It was mostly a private affair."

"As Garst says, Khrushchev seems to be interested in corn. We have plenty of corn around here for him to see."

Rogers said he knows of no local plans that would involve a Khrushchev visit, and Garst said he had nothing special in mind except to show the Soviet leader some Iowa agriculture.

Garst's wife commented: "I have mixed emotions about the whole thing. "But I hope he has a good time in Iowa."

Forest Fire In Southland Being Tamed

SAN BERNARDINO (UPI)—Fire-fighters today contained 80 per cent of the 35-mile perimeter of a giant forest fire in San Bernardino National Forest.

Full control of the 11,200-acre blaze by some 1,800 fire fighters was hoped for by tonight.

The blaze broke out Sunday in a stable. Arson investigators said it definitely had been started by man, although they have not yet determined whether it was set deliberately or by accident.

Six firemen were injured battling the fire and one fire fighter died when he suffered a heart attack on fire lines. He was Leo Zunie, 50, of Zuni, N. M., a member of the Indian crews imported from New Mexico and Arizona to fight the blaze.

No homes have been destroyed.

Lynwood Unit To Hear Incorporation Debate

Residents of the Lynwood subdivision in south Novato will be given a chance to hear both proponents and opponents of incorporation for Novato at a public meeting at Lynwood School "sometime in the near future," directors of the Lynwood Park Improvement Assn. have decided.

James Edwards, chairman of the group's study committee, was appointed to make arrangements for such a debate.

Herter Thinks Berlin Tension Being Eased Up

GENEVA (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew home today to tell President Eisenhower that despite the failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference, West Berlin is probably safe from Soviet pressure for many months to come.

Traveling by Air Force jet, Herter was due in Washington this afternoon and planned to see the President an hour after his arrival.

NO AGREEMENT

The foreign ministers' conference—one of the longest high-level international sessions in more than a century—recessed indefinitely last night without agreement on either of the two major problems discussed. These were a German peace settlement and the future of West Berlin.

But Herter went home convinced that the danger of any overt Soviet action to force the Western powers out of West Berlin has been suspended and a new period of decreased tension in East-West relations seems to be opening.

SIMILAR VIEW

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd expressed a somewhat similar view on his arrival in London last night from Geneva. Recalling the tension which flared when Premier Nikita Khrushchev made his first threat last November to drive the Allies from West Berlin, Lloyd said the Geneva conference had succeeded in creating "the kind of atmosphere in which you negotiate."

Herter's view is based mainly on two developments: The agreement by Eisenhower and Khrushchev to exchange visits and hold informal talks beginning in Washington in September, and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's repeated statements here that his government prefers a negotiated settlement for Berlin rather than a decision forced by unilateral Soviet action.

As one Western diplomat put it, Khrushchev would rather try to negotiate the Western powers out of Berlin than try to squeeze them out at the risk of a war.

STATE CHIEFS BACK NIXON, FRIENDS SAY

Rockefeller Apparently Unable To Win Over GOP Governors

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Richard M. Nixon's backers remained confident today that a majority of the nation's Republican governors support the vice president for their party's 1960 presidential nomination.

The GOP state executives generally were reluctant to express public preferences during the 51st Annual Governors' Conference, which wound up its business here yesterday. But the impact of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller on his party colleagues was obviously less favorable than Nixon's friends had feared it would be.

CLOSER TO CONTEST

Rockefeller edged somewhat closer to contesting for the 1960 GOP nomination in public and private utterance. At times he had the appearance of a man who is being convinced that he ought to make a try for it. At others he was as hesitant as he has seemed to be for months.

The word now is that Rockefeller will decide about Nov. 1 whether he ought to take on Nixon. And he will do that only if he is convinced that the vice president seems likely to be defeated by a Democrat that he, Rockefeller, has a better chance to keep the White House in Republican hands.

Rockefeller impressed his fellow chief executives as a forceful, alert man, willing to take on any comers who challenge his political philosophy.

TAKES ON STRATTON

He did this with Illinois Gov. William G. Stratton, another Republican, in a sharp verbal exchange over federal intrusion into gubernatorial authority. It seems safe to say that if Rockefeller should become a candidate for the presidential nomination, his brush with Stratton did not improve his chances of getting the support of the Illinois delegation.

Some Republican governors seemed to feel, a bit resentfully, that Rockefeller was preoccupied with weighty issues and had little time to fraternize with them.

Outspoken Gov. Harold W. Handley of Indiana contended that Nixon had held his ground and possibly had improved his prospects somewhat, although the vice president had no staff representative at the conference.

The conference produced little enlightment on the position of Democratic presidential hopefuls.

Govs. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut and Foster Furcolo of Massachusetts beat the drums for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) but seemed unable to find any responsive echoes.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California displayed surprising signs that he may be considering himself as something of a major candidate for top place on his party's ticket.

'BUT, OFFICERS, 'DOGS BARKED AT ME FIRST'

PRESCOT, England (UPI)—James Halliwell, 46, was fined $108 today for drunken barking.

Police said Halliwell got down on all fours and barkback at a dog who barked at him as he was entering his car. They said he thus incited an entire neighborhood of dogs to bark.

Halliwell acknowledged he'd had four or five—or maybe six—pints of beer.

Smokes Go Overseas

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American cigarettes continue to be popular abroad, government figures showed.

Nearly 5,900,000,000 U. S. cigarettes were exported in the first four months of 1959, up 8 per cent over last year.

Rabid Skunk Bites Boy In Hayward

HAYWARD (UPI) — Robert Coppin Jr., 12, Hayward, was hospitalized yesterday after it was learned that a skunk that bit him yesterday was rabid.

He and four young companions caught the animal while playing on San Leandro Creek near his home and it bit him on the left hand. The skunk was killed by a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals aide.

'Iolanthe' Scheduled By Junior Theater

Gilbert and Sullivan's "Iolanthe," a story of lords and fairies, will be the Mill Valley Junior Theater's 10th summer production on Aug 12 and 13 at Park School.

The Junior Theater is directed by Mrs. George Pritzker and supervised by the Parks and Recreation Commission of Mill Valley.

Assistant director this year is Richard Abbott, a veteran actor with the Junior Theater who has appeared in "Anything You Wish," "Carmen," "Mikado," as well as in a skit given at the first dance of the Mill Valley Teen-agers Assn. and in the Mill Valley Masquers' production of "Inherit The Wind." William Castelli, director of the summer recreation program, is also assisting with the production.

Mrs. Richard Goldsmith, who has been directing the dances for three years, will again be choreographer, and Mrs. George Givens for a second year will accompany the young thespians.

Bruce Butte Jr., who is doing the set designs, is one of the talented teen-agers working on the production. He is well known as the set designer for many of the presentations at Tamalpais High School, including the recent "Paint Your Wagon." He has won several awards for poster designs and is now studying art at the California School of Fine Arts.

Two casts will perform on alternate nights. Actors in leading roles will revert to the chorus on odd nights, thus gaining experience in two different types of acting.

The title role of "Iolanthe" will be played by Lynn Jolley and Lois Clymer; the Lord Chancellor by Bobby Meier and Paul Abbott; Strephon by Stephen Major and Kevin Dwyer; Phyllis by Hollis Hite and Jane Clark; Private Willis by Alan Shearer; the Fairy Queen by Terry Dwyer and Laura Sheehan; Lord Mountararat by Peter Purdue and Phillip Abbott; and Lord Tolloler by Bruce James and Chris Minto.

Lords are: Ian Minto, Canny Goodman, Peter Martin, Ernie Bergmann, Clark Ross and Danny Allis.

Fairies are: Laura Begquist, Laud Deidrich, Susan Hite, Kathy Kemp, Elaine Robba, Judy Goodman, Jenny Oppenheim, Kay Wagner, Judy Hood, Susan Kemp, Tina Goodman, Donna McKelvy, Judy James, Sarah Oppenheim, Ann Wagner, Sandra Nadler, Val Varney, Christine Preist, Linda McKely, Linda Cook and Robin Pritzker.

Several members of the creative dramatis class will also appear in the play. There is no admission charge.

Salvage Shop Funds Benefit Speech Therapy

Members of the Sausalito Salvage Shop held their August meeting on Monday with Mrs. Clyde Trudell, chairman, presiding. The purpose of the monthly meetings is to weigh the merits of requests for funds, with monies disposed of by vote. Four-hundred dollars is being sent to Arequipa for its program in Speech Therapy for Marin County children and $50 will be sent to CARE, earmarked for food for Tibetan refugees in India.

Anyone wishing to donate salvage to the shop can have it picked up by calling the shop.

TWO OF the leading characters in the Mill Valley Junior Theater's Aug. 12 and 13 production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Iolanthe" are Jane Clark as "Phyllis" and Stephen Bajor as "Strephon," who is half human and half fairy. He is saying to Phyllis, "I don't want to wait to marry you. In two years you may be too old—look at yourself in the mirror."

ONE OF THE highlights of the Mill Valley Junior Theater's production of "Iolanthe" is the point at which Lois Clymer in the title role on returning from banishment presents herself to the Lord Chancellor, who is surprised to find her alive. Paul Abbott is one of the two boys who play the Lord Chancellor.

ON THE STAGE of Mill Valley's Park School, where the Mill Valley Junior Theater will present "Iolanthe," three leading characters were photographed in a major scene. Terry Dwyer as the Fairy Queen announces to "Strephon," played by Kevin Dwyer, that he will be a member of the Fairy parliament. Hearing the announcement is Hollis, one of the two girls who play the part of "Phyllis."

Northgate Fashion Luncheon Gives Knobby Knees Go-By

Knobby, as well as dimpled, knees were frowned upon as fall fashion items by commentators with the masculine and with the feminine attitude at an entertaining style show presented yesterday during the third of the Northgate Group summer luncheons held at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Arthur Edwards and Marion Bellamy, witty fashion authorities, took turns describing the autumn clothes and accessories from a shop at Kentfield corners to the capacity audience enjoying the popular public outdoor affair.

The Social Service and Junior Social Service Auxiliaries sponsored the event, with members of the groups acting as models and waitresses.

After dispensing with the headline fashion story of fall 1959, and expressing delight that knees in Marin would be out of sight if not out of mind, Edwards and Mrs. Bellamy opened the show with Mrs. William Donohoe in a tawny tan jersey dress in line with the county's good taste.

Mrs. J. Paul Limont was chosen to model a becoming blue Lanz cotton frock with a full skirt and choir-boy collar while Mrs. Luciano Sabello was selected for a Lantz wool flannel suit. The expected Lanz fullness was expressed in unpressed pleats. The shorter jacket forecast for this autumn topped Mrs. Sabello's trim costume.

Other Lanz styles were modeled by Mrs. James Bowler in red, white and blue cotton, Mrs. John O'Connell in an olive green cotton sheath (just to prove a Lanz dress does not have to be full-skirted and basque-waisted).

Mrs. John C. Roll appeared in a three-piece Glen of Michigan brown corduroy suit for the country girl. Slim, tapered pants worn with a plaid shirt and loose jacket appeared custom-made for the lithe model. Later in the show, Mrs. Roll modeled Mr. Mort's printed wool sheath and his flattering sculptured black crepe dress for party wear.

A quilted jumper with great style, created by Mr. Mort also, was worn with a sweater for the Marin look by Mrs. William Parnow. Mrs. Parnow also modeled an excellent travel frock, fashioned of gray shadow striped silk-and-cotton with unpressed pleats and refreshing white touches.

GETS A HAND

Mrs. Alfred J. Oyster Jr. received applause in a slim-lined gray glen plaid dress distinguished by pagoda-like sleeves. The fashionable dress was designed for city or country any season of the year.

A car coat and slim jims for the county's many sports car drivers were worn with a collegiate flair by Mrs. Howard P. Haswell, who later showed her versatility by modeling an emerald green silk faille formal with a bowed bodice and sweeping skirt over her full petticoat.

Mrs. Frank Duhme and Mrs. John de Maria wore outstanding fall suit-dresses indicating the importance of soft two-piece silhouettes. Mrs. Duhme modeled a toasty brown wool and rabbit's hair costume, styled to flatter all figures and types.

GRAY IMPORTANT

Leading characteristics of the show were the stress on gray, on the fashion rightness of flannel, on the love of pleats, the shorter jacket; and the sheer femininity of after five and evening wear. Beguiling black silk and velvet frocks, all with becoming accents led the glamor parade.

Many members of Northgate Group assisted in making the day the success it was. Noted at the punch bowl were hostesses Mesdames Harold Hansen, Paul Foster, Norman B. Livermore. Busy coordinating the event, with overall chairmen Mrs. Melville Duncan and Mrs. Roland Wilson, was Mrs. John C. Gilman.

Reservations are filled for next week's Panhellenic luncheon and show with 400 guests expected, but reservations are open to the public for the events on August 19 when the Professional Wives (Doctors, Dentists, Lawyers(will sponsor the luncheon, and on August 26 when the Peter Pan, Tom Thumb and Jolly Rogers chapters of the Children's Home Society will host. Reservations may be made by calling the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Open House Ends Ross PT-A Program

The Ross Parent - Teacher Assn. Summer Activities program came to a close on Monday evening with an Open House at the Ross School, where the community was invited to see the children's accomplishments.

Work of the arts and crafts classes, conducted by Mrs. John Adams of Mill Valley, was displayed on walls and tables throughout the room. The children experimented with ceramics, chalks, sand casting, enamel, collage, wire sculpture, and mosaics in the four week course.

The sketching class, led by Miss Leatrice Angel of San Francisco, had an exhibit showing the various techniques and media they had explored.

F. K. Taigen of Burlingame, who instructed the typing classes, had prepared a display showing the progress of the classes during the term. Minimum age for these classes was 10 years, and several attained a speed of 20 words per minute.

The tennis classes concluded with the Ross Junior Tennis Tournament. William Kennedy, president of the Northern California Tennis Assn., who was director of the tennis program, presented cups to the winners of the tournament at the Open House.

Winners were: Younger girls' doubles, Jo Anne Parente and Karen Wolfson; Younger boys' doubles, Billy Poole and Bruce McGee; Older girls' doubles, Deborah Doyle and Virginia Rothrock; and Older boys doubles, Alien Bersaglieri and Douglas Sederberg.

The girls who participated in the dressmaking class, taught by Mrs. Lester Bricca of Ross, presented a fashion show, modeling the garments they made in class. Modeling were Ann Cahill, Marta Osterloh, Terry Shistar, Jeanne Fixes, Lynn Diamond, Meg Gentes, Eileen Corns, Kathy Lang, and Susan Maclise.

Parents of the youngsters in the swimming classes were invited by Mrs. Ernest Egenberger of San Rafael, the swimming instructor, to visit the final classes on the preceding Thursday and Friday. There was an enrollment of 364 in these classes which were open to all children residing in the Ross School District.

Reception To Follow Benefit

"Artists at Work," the project to present studios of San Francisco's leading artists to the public for the benefit of the Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Assn. on Sept. 16, is now fully staffed with eager volunteers.

Mrs. Nicholas Boyd Jr. is project chairman.

Studios will be open from 11 a.m. till 6 p.m. Special luncheon arrangements are being made at selected restaurants in the North Beach sector, and a champagne reception will be held at the Center, 555 Chestnut street from till 7.

Tickets for Marinites may be purchased from Mrs. James D. Green, Canyon road, Ross.

Visit In San Anselmo

Mrs. Francis Cooke Macgregor has arrived here for a three weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. Charles F. Cooke of San Anselmo. She has just returned from vacationing at Cap Martin on the French Riviera.

Mrs. Macgregor is visiting professor of Social Sciences at Cornell University-New York Hospital School of Nursing. She was graduated from the University of California and is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Two Marin Women Named To Legion Auxiliary Posts

Recently elected Department president of the American Legion Auxiliary Mrs. O'Neill Ganey of Van Nuys, California, this week announced two appointments in Marin County.

Mrs. Walter F. Johnson of San Anselmo will direct the statewide phases of Child Welfare, a major objective of the American Legion Auxiliary for the past forty years. The program which gives immediate assistance to needy children throughout the state last year reported aid to 14,905 children and youth, with expenditures totaling $87,822.89 by some 580 Auxiliary Units throughout California.

Save the Children Federation received over 5,600 pounds of used clothing, for needy children in the Southern Mountain States to insure school attendance during the winter months. Christmas gift shop projects for children of hospitalized veterans, direct aid to high school students, providing playground and hospital equipment and special emphasis to aiding mentally retarded children needs will be continued phases of the Child Welfare program for the coming year.

The second Marin appointment went to Mrs. Francis M. Fugate of Corte Madera who was named editor of the Auxiliary's house organ for a fifth consecutive year. Circulation of the Auxiliary News is now close to the 40,000 mark.

State president Ganey announced that the major activities of the American Legion Auxiliary will continue to be Veteran Rehabilitation, Child Welfare, Americanism, National Security and Community Service.

"As veterans grow older and families grow larger, as patriotic citizenship becomes more essential, as the threat of communism continues to cast its shadow over free land, and as our communities grow bigger, the work of the Auxiliary in these fields becomes more greatly needed," she advised.

Marin units actively engaged in American Legion Auxiliary work include San Anselmo Unit No. 179, Mill Valley Unit No. 284, Twin Cities Unit No. 313 and Bolinas Bay Unit No. 572, with a combined membership of over 350 members.

GLAD TO BE back in Marin after six months in Washington, D.C. where her husband is a Congressman representing Marin County and six other counties in the First Congressional District is Mrs. Clement W. Miller who, with her five daughters, arrived in Marin from Washington on July 15. Mrs. Miller was honored at a recent tea at the San Rafael home of Mrs. F. F. Weiss. Shown here with Mrs. Miller is, left to right, Supervisor Mrs. Vera Schultz, First District Democratic Co-chairman Mrs. Samuel Swadesh and Mrs. Miller, seated.

Designer Decries Traditional Look Of Modern Furnishings

NEW YORK (UPI)—One woman industrial designer decries the traditional look given some of our modern furnishings.

"I don't like going back . . . it is a mistake giving new materials the look of the old. A phony embellishment," said Belle Kogan, one of the few women who have succeeded in a field dominated by men.

"Some modern furniture designers all of a sudden are getting away from simple forms and adding carvings. It's unfortunate.

"They're even making plastic dishes in patterns from 17th and 18th century English China. If we have to use some old pattern, let's at least give it a modern treatment."

Miss Kogan, born in Russia, the daughter of a jeweler, began her industrial design career with an ash tray. Today, she designs dishes, glassware, kitchen equipment, gift items, and packaging for most of the products.

She believes she is the first designer to work in plastic—she made of all things a base for a neon light display stand in 1929. But today, plastic is one of the basic materials in housewares. One of her clients, a dinnerware manufacturer, annually sells six million dishes in the plastic melamine.

The same firm will pay Miss Kogan as much as $10,000 to design a new pattern; quite a contrast to the $25 she collected in 1929 when she sold a butterfly-decorated ash tray pattern which ultimately was copied in tableware.

Miss Kogan's parents came to America when she was four and first settled in Catasaqua, Pa., near Allentown. But she said "with eight children to send to college, dad decided he'd better move to New York where some of the schooling was free."

She worked in her father's jewelry store while studying at Pratt Institute and the Art Students' League. She intended to become a portrait artist, but a silverware manufacturer she met through her father's business changed all that—he asked her to become a designer.

It was in the early depression years when she moved to Attleboro, Mass., to work for the Quaker Silver Co.; 10 years later, she and her father bought the firm, moved it to North Attleboro. During her years with Quaker, she went abroad for further study of design and to learn the craftsmen's technique in factories in England, Germany, Czechoslovakia and the Scandinavian countries.

In 1933, the Kogan free-lance industrial design firm opened in New York.

"Industrial design was . . . still is . . . a fairly new field," she said. "Henry Ford actually started it, when he hired a designer to re-do the Model-T."

"It still is a profession where few women have become names," she said.

Congressman's Wife Feted At Tea In Weiss Home

Mrs. Clement W. Miller, wife of the First District Congressman, was honored by a poolside tea given by Democratic women recently in San Rafael. Hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. F. F. Weiss, 22 Clyde avenue, who opened her home to 65 Democratic women for the occasion.

Mrs. Miller, who with her five daughters arrived back in Marin from Washington July 15, will spend the next several weeks at their Redwood avenue home in Corte Madera. They expect to spend a few weeks in Inverness, where they also own a vacation home.

"I came home for the children's sake," Mrs. Miller said, "although we all hated to leave Congressman Miller in Washington. But I'm finding that I'm the one who really is ecstatic at being back in Marin County. We like Washington very much and have been most fortunate in finding a lovely home there. But really, there is just no place like Marin County."

Mrs. Miller said she expects the Congressman home to Marin when Congress adjourns "sometime after Labor Day."

In charge of arrangements for the tea was Mrs. Herbert Appenzeller, assisted by Mesdames Harold Watkin, Kentfield; Harry Black, Corte Madera; Wyman Hicks, Sausalito; Kenneth Nelson, Mill Valley; Oliver Smith, Tiburon; Joseph Guthrie, Ross; Fred Volz, Novato; Peter Krug, Larkspur; and Peter Diffley and William Deaver, San Rafael.

Marin Residents Sail On Lurline

Return Home

Dr. and Mrs. Delman D. Smith of Sausalito and their children, Dan, Kathy and Margie, have returned from a camping interlude at the 'Lair of the Golden Bear', U.C.'s Alumni Camp at Pinecrest. Accompanying the Smiths was Dan's friend, Peter MacLaird, also of Sausalito.

Right Now He's A Beatnik But He Will Change When A Father

"I'm a beatnik," a man writes. "My wife will have her first baby in September. As a beatnik I've trained myself to take things as they come. I'm not excited over the baby, but my wife is. She can't talk of anything else. She's even going to lectures on baby care. My way of life is upset. Why should she be so excited? Women have been having babies for millions of years. What's so unusual about another one?"

The answer is that everything is unusual when it is your own baby. You'll sense this soon after he arrives. You'll begin to see resemblances to yourself in him. You'll see your wife in him too. You'll become aware of the miracle of reproduction. If you're a normal man you'll be thrilled. I promise.

The baby will continue to upset your way of life. You've lived chiefly for yourself. Beatniks are good at that. You've been able to come and go, disregarding others. Income hasn't mattered too much. In the future you'll live chiefly for your baby. Your life will be regimented, but you won't mind. You'll be surprised how you'll blossom. For the first time in your life you'll sacrifice yourself for someone else, and feel good about it. Does this seem impossible? Wait and see.

Remember, you have paternal instincts. They haven't been aroused so far. But they'll take over after you've lived with the baby. After you've held him, cuddled him, talked to him. After you've felt his little hands clench your fingers and the weight of his head on your shoulder. He'll give you a real purpose in life.

(A) It would help if you could stop smoking. Probably the arguments against her smoking apply equally to you.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, Aug. 6, the 218th day of the year, with 147 more days in 1959.

The moon is in its first quarter.

The morning star is Mercury.

The evening stars are Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this date in history:

In 1890, William Kemmler—the first person in the United States to be electrocuted for murder—died in the electric chair in Auburn, N.Y.

In 1914, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, died in the White House.

In 1926, Miss Gertrude Edrle of New York swam the English Channel in 14 hours and 31 minutes, the first American woman to do so.

In 1926, the first talking movie shorts were shown at the Warner Brothers Theater in New York.

In 1930, New York State Supreme Court Judge Joseph Crater stepped into a New York taxicab and was never seen or heard of again.

In 1940, Italy invaded British Somaliland, starting the battle of Africa in World War II.

In 1945, President Harry Truman announced that an atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, Japan, beginning the nuclear age.

A thought for today: Russian novelist Leo Tolstoy said, "A man having no freedom cannot be conceived of except as deprived of life."

The first cash register was invented in 1879 by James Ritty of Dayton, Ohio, to prevent pilfering in his cafe. Dials on the clocklike face of the device recorded the amount of a sale when keys were punched.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. each day the code letters are different.

PICK A NUMBER — Highway 40 is also Highway 80 in some sections. It's one of several major routes given new interstate designations. California will keep the old numbers alongside and the new numbers will be in differently shaped shields. Officials acknowledge they expect some confusion but say they must go along with national decisions. Highway designations plus new speed limit, new freeway center barriers and new green signs all are part of the state's advanced freeway project. (AP Wirephoto)

SPEED LIMIT EFFECTS

New Wrinkles Coming In Freeway Driving

By PAUL FINCH

SACRAMENTO (AP)—State Division of Highway planners say some freeways will soon dictate how slow you may drive and when you may go to work.

The new wrinkles in freeway driving may appear soon after Jan. 1.

That's when an inflexible 65 m.p.h. speed limit replaces the 55 m.p.h. prima facie formula, which allowed individual discretion.

The experts think the new maximum will have no appreciable effect on the average flow of traffic, but will give the Highway Patrol power to clamp down on dangerous speeders.

Minimum speeds, approved by the 1959 Legislature along with the new maximum, are expected to speed up the flow, however. The most probably minimum is about 55 m.p.h.

Pokey sightseers and some trucks—especially delivery vehicles and those which could slow on long grades—will be eliminated during peak hours on certain freeways stretches where surveys indicate it's desirable.

This will cut down on roadblocking by a few vehicles which stack up a phalanx behind them.

Factories and other major employers in congested areas may be asked by the state to stagger their shifts, spreading out the peak hours on freeways.

Moreover, look for new freeway center barriers, more green signs and confusing new numbers.

After months of testing, the division has developed two new types of barriers which soon will be installed on sections of the Hollywood, Santa Ana, Ventura, Oakland's Nimitz and San Francisco's Bayshore freeways.

The chain link, made of cables, fencing and light steel posts, will be used to halt careening cars without hurting the passengers. Another type, using steel guard rails attached to wooden blocks and posts, will be installed in center sections of less than 12 feet in width.

These barriers are designed to cut down accidents caused when a car shoots into the adjoining lane of opposite traffic through a fence—or is thrown back into his own lane in front of oncoming cars because the fence was too resilient.

Green signs will replace the black as they wear out even though black is more readable. Surveys indicate the motorist prefers green.

New interstate highway numbers are going to be tacked up alongside the old numbers. For instance, U.S. 40 will also be called Highway 80 . . . on certain sections meeting national standards.

"We don't particularly like the idea," says Rudy Israel, assistant state traffic engineer. But we've got to go along with national decisions."

Despite complaints from motorists who get lost driving on California's complex road system, Israel thinks present signs are clear enough to keep people headed where they want to go.

"Of course, some people get lost anywhere," he says philosophically.

The division also plans construction of more turnouts on two-lane mountain roads, where the law says a driver must pull over when five or more cars are stacked up behind.

NEXT: Freeways of the future.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

'Gator In Garage

EDMOND, Okla. (AP) — Fred L. Tanner found an alligator in his garage workshop here last night — a five-inch baby alligator.

Tanner doesn't know where the little one came from. Neither do nearby Oklahoma City zoo officials, who said a count of alligator tails there showed all were present.

Tanner said the baby 'gator seems very happy in a backyard birdbath, even if the birds aren't.

Florida Keys Isolated

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The southern half of the Florida Keys was isolated for six hours last night when a drawbridge in the seven-mile bridge system of the Overseas Highway jammed in a raised position.

The bridge over Moser Channel south of Marathon became stuck when it was raised to let boat traffic pass.

Traffic backed up for miles on both sides of the bridge.

Bugs Pay Off

CHESTERTON, Md. (AP) — Nimble Christine Kimble caught 8,140 lightning bugs this summer.

It paid off, too, for the 11-year-old girl. She got nearly $2 for the bugs from the biology department of Washington College, where they're used for scientific research. And as champion bug collector who beat 76 other children at the game she collected a $10 bonus.

Dot Misses Islands

HONOLULU (UPI) — The U.S. Weather Bureau warned residents along the southern and western shores of all the Hawaiian Islands to be prepared today for 30-foot waves from Hurricane Dot.

The bureau said danger of severe damage was past, barring a sudden change of course by the hurricane, now heading north. The storm swept past the islands yesterday, but the main force of the 130-mile an hour hurricane remained safely at sea.

Hiroshima Prays

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP) —The 340,000 inhabitants of Hiroshima paused today for a minute of prayer on the 14th anniversary of the American atom bombing of their city. Two girls, disfigured as children by the searing explosion, tolled the memorial bell in the Peace Plaza before more than 30,000 people carrying incense sticks and Buddhist rosaries.

Fighting In Tibet

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP) — Scattered fighting is still going on against the conquering Chinese in some parts of Tibet's isolated wastes, according to refugees trickling across the borders into Nepal. Nepalese officials said the refugees are Khampas, the tribe which was in the forefront of Tibet's unsuccessful struggle against the Communists earlier this year.

Hard To Convince

SANTA CLARA (AP) —"Look," patiently explained grocer Sam Re to customers who tried to tell him yesterday his roof was on fire. "There's no fire. The roofers are working up there."

When six more passers-by rushed in to tell him there really was a blaze, Re went outside and looked. It took 15 firemen and six pieces of equipment to extinguish the fire but damage was slight.

The roofers had left.

Close Call For Faubus

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A state official was hit by an automobile yesterday that narrowly missed Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Faubus was crossing a downtown street with state Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams and State Police Sgt. Floyd Weaver, Faubus' escort, when the car hit Adams. Faubus and Weaver jumped out of the way. Adams suffered contusions and abrasions on the hand and leg.

Police said W. H. Parks, 55, of Batesville, Ark., driver of the car, was charged with failure to yield the right of way to pedestrians.

Hiker Falls To Death

ZION NATIONAL PARK, Utah (AP)—Young Kelly Hilton slipped on mossy rocks yesterday and fell 125 feet to his death in Zion National Park in southwestern Utah.

The 17-year-old youth was on a hiking expedition with three companions to the Natural Bridge, which is about 1,000 feet above the foot of the huge canyon park.

The hikers had strayed from the main trail, and Hilton fell as they were coming back.

Climbers who found Hilton said he apparently landed on his head and died instantly.

Quakes Jolt Wash.

SEATTLE (AP) — Two earthquakes shook the little town of Chelan and were felt over wide areas of Washington state last night. No major damage or injuries were reported.

At Chelan, the merchandise in a grocery store was knocked off shelves by the first earthquake. Books tumbled from some shelves in the Chelan library, and a chimney was knocked down.

In the mountainous area northwest of Wenatchee, the tremors sent rocks crashing down on roadways.

Long Lives It Up

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Gov. Earl K. Long, showing as much snap as his traditional suspenders, danced and sang at a party in the executive mansion here last night. It was a last "wing-ding" before the special session of the legislature he called for Monday.

Long imported a Bourbon street band — the "Famous Door Five" — from the French Quarter in New Orleans to play his favorite songs. With the combo playing a hopped-up beat of "I'm Looking Over a Four-Leaf Clover," Long croaked the lyrics.

The governor, who will celebrate his 64th birthday this month, also jitterbugged on the crowded floor. "I still got some snap," he hollered.

A-1 accomodations for advertisers at the daily newspaper!

ONE OF A SERIES

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER is probably the most accommodating and adaptable medium that any advertiser could ask for. He can run a one-inch ad or a two-page spread or a special section. He can run it once a month, once a week or as many times in the same issue as he wishes. In fact, the daily newspaper is so accommodating that an advertiser can get his ad in the newspaper overnight. No wonder all advertisers place more money in the daily newspaper than any other medium!

CONEY ISLAND PENGUINS, SEALS REAL SHOWOFFS

NEW YORK (UPI)—Penguins and seals at the Coney Island Aquarium are splashing about in plastic "backyard" swimming pools this summer, pending completion of their concrete pools.

Aquarium director Christopher W. Coates said they cause a few more problems than the neighborhood children in similar pools. The penguins, for instance, occasionally poke a hole to watch the water pour out. And the seals have learned how to pull down the pool walls to drain the water.

"Then they bark and feel very smart," he said. "And I guess they are."

Permission Asked For Big Bonfire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Permission for an acre-wide bonfire of building debris was asked yesterday by Eichler Homes of San Mateo.

The company asked the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District for permission.

A spokesman said it would be a one-time burning of an acre pile of debris at Crystal Springs Reservoir.

The pile would be ignited instantanteously by fuses throughout the pile. This would make the fire hot enough to send all ashes and air contaminants high enough to be carried away.

The directors took the request under advisement.

Law Partners Form New Corporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Articles of incorporation for Simplex Metals Corp., a $75,000 concern to manufacture dental and orthodontic supplies, are on file with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today.

Directors are listed as Thomas C. Nelson, Mill Valley; Thomas P. Boyd and David Menary Jr., both of San Rafael. The three are partners in a law firm.
